CREW'S SUFFERINGS

Adrift For Days In Boat at Mercy of Waves.

THEY WERE FINALLY SAVED

One Dead from the Exposure and the Remaining Three Were in a Pitable Condition When Rescued—Mate Relates Story of Trials.

Seattle, Wash., Feb. 19.—A dispatch to the Post Intelligencer from Neah Bay, says:

The crew of the little six-ton sloop ... lying at anchor here, were ... Monday night by a feeble ... from a steel lifeboat drawing up ... in the light breeze.

In the boat were the forms of four men, three living and one dead, survivors of the American ship, Emily ... wrecked off the mouth of the ... river on the coast of Oregon, two hundred miles from Neah Bay. The men in the boat were: ... Mate Fred Zube, Seaman ... Hildsted, Seaman Arthur Ja... ship's cook, name unknown. The dead man was the ship's cook. The three living survivors were in ... condition. LOCAL OPTION FOR OHIO.

Each County Will Settle the Liquor Question for Itself.

Columbus, O., Feb. 19—The house committee on temperance has voted to recommend the Rose county option bill, seven of the nine members of the committee signing the report. The bill has passed the senate. The action of the committee was taken at the conclusion of a public hearing on the bill held in the hall of representatives.

The only speech made in opposition to the measure was by T. M. Gilmore of Kentucky, president of the National Model License League. Mr. Gilmore declared his belief that the saloon could be made an elevating factor in society, but, that in order to do so, it would have to be treated right and not hounded.

L. D. Lilley, of Columbus, defended the county as a unit in local option, on the ground that the people in the country have as much right as tre people in cities to vote upon questions of public policy, because they are taxed to support the courts and the administration of county affairs.

CRUSHED BY TRAIN.

Mangled Body of Woman Identified by Husband's Photograph.

Chicago, Feb. 19.—Through the picture of her husband on a button she wore on her dress, the mangled form of Mrs. Margaret Wilson, wife of John Wilson, was identified Monday night.

Mrs. Wilson had been crushed to death by a Northwestern railroad passenger train at Elizabeth street on Sunday evening.

Beside the picture of her husband, Mrs. Wilson carried nothing that might identify her. The body was so crushed that the features were unrecognizable. Monday night Mr. Wilson saw his likeness without a name in a paper, accompanied by an account of the death of the unknown woman. He immediately went to the county morgue and claimed the body as that of his wife.

TRIAL OF BEACH HARGIS.

Boy Will be Defended by Money of Father He Slew.

Lexington, Ky., Feb. 19.—In the defense of Beach Hargis for the murder of his father, Judge James Hargis, the expenses will be paid out of the $50,000, which is the boy's share of his father's large estate.

When Judge James H. Adams convened the Breathitt circuit court at Jackson Monday the Hargis case was the most important matter waiting action. It is expected that Beach Hargis will be promptly indicted and if this is done his trial for the murder of his father will begin at once. The defense will be self-defense.

ALDRICH BILL CONDEMNED.

Measure Does Not Suit the New York State Bankers.

New York, Feb. 19.—The council of administration of the New York State Bankers' association, put itself on record as "unequivocally disapproving" the provisions of the Aldrich financial bill now pending in the United States senate.

The resolution adopted follows:

"That the bankers of the state of New York, unequivocally disapprove of the provision of the Aldrich bill; that they do not approve of a bond secured for emergency currency; that they demand an elastic currency based on bank assets, as provided in the measure of the currency commission of the currency commission of the American Bankers' association."

Coal for Southern Markets.

Pittsburg, Pa., Feb. 19—More than 5,000,000 bushels of coal will be shipped from this city to Southern markets. The shipments at this time are made possible by high river stages but the evidence of the flood is fast disappearing. A restoration of normal conditions is looked for soon.

Child Burned to Death.

Newnan, Ga., Feb. 19.—The four-year-old daughter of Hon. T. E. Atkinson, brother of the late Governor Atkinson, was frightfully burned Monday while playing around the kitchen stove, and lived but three hours after the accident.

REPORT IS DENIED

No Attempt Made to Assassinate King Alfonso.

RUMOR STARTS BARCELONA

It is Thought to Have Had Its Source In the Late Bomb Explosions at Barcelona, in Which a Woman Was Killed and a Child Injured.

Madrid, Feb. 19.—There is no truth in the report current in Paris that King Alfonso had been assassinated.

The rumor probably was an outgrowth of the bomb explosions at Barcelona Monday, which now appear to have been the work of anarchists.

In addition to killing one woman and dangerously wounding a child, the explosion caused much damage to the buildings in the vicinity.

The precise object of the outrages has not yet been made clear, but it is interesting to note that the actions of the parliamentary opposition recently united in a request to the government to restore the constitutional guarantees in Barcelona declaring that normal conditions prevailed there.

King Alfonso is at present at Seville.

FLOODS CONTINUE.

Many Rivers in Southern Indiana Are Still Rising.

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 19.—Reports from points in Southern Indiana are that floods continue throughout that part of the state. The weather has turned clear and cold which will check the rapid rise in streams, but the water is not yet at a standstill.

At Petersburg the White and Patoka rivers are higher than since 1875 and thousands of acres of wheat lands are submerged. Schools have closed and trains have ceased running on several roads. Hundreds of men are repairing washouts. The town has had no mail or train service since Friday. At Terre Haute the Wabash is 17½ feet and is rising.

ASSEMBLYMAN ATTACKED.

Said He Was Set Upon by Members of Western Miners' Federation.

Goldfields, Nev., Feb. 19.—Thomas Tighe, an assemblyman, from this county, was set upon by three members of the Western Federation of Miners and in the struggle that followed was badly cut about the face.

He fought off his assailants with his revolver which he used as a club, the miners getting the worst of the encounter.

The offense charged to Tighe was that he had supported the state police bill in the special session of the legislature recently closed.

$100,000 Damage from Explosions.

Camden, N. J., Feb. 19.—Following a series of explosions in which several workmen were injured, fire Monday afternoon damaged the varnish and paint plant of the N. Z. Graves company at Twelfth and Penn streets, this city. Eight dwellings adjoining were almost entirely destroyed. Several firemen were slightly injured by exploding benzine. The loss is estimated at $100,000.

Final Consideration Entered On.

Washington, Feb. 19.—The final stages of the passage of the executive legislative and judicial appropriation bill were entered upon in the house of representatives Monday when that measure was taken up for consideration. Mr. Macon, of Arkansas, continued his policy of attacking all increases in salaries and they were accordingly rejected on points of order made by him.

Mail Sack Kills Man.

Dawson, Ga., Feb. 19.—Churchwell, a Reddick merchant and postmaster at Weston, 20 miles above here on the Eastward, was struck by a passenger engine at noon Monday. It is thought Churchwell was struck by this and thrown under the trucks. One of his legs was cut off, the other broken and one arm broken. He died as a result of the injuries.

FATAL END TO QUARREL.

Man Followed Another Around World To Have Revenge.

New York, Feb. 19.—John Seitender is dead and Rossi Morani is in the hospital dying as the result of an enmity which began in Italy fifteen years ago. At that time both men were suitors for the hand of the same girl. Morani married her and Seitender threatened that he would kill him if he had to follow him around the world to find the opportunity. Morani came to America with his bride and has lived in Brooklyn ever since.

Monday night the two men met on the street in Brooklyn for the first time since the threat was made. Seitender drew a razor and without a word slashed Morani about the head and shoulders.

The men grappled and rolled about on the sidewalk until Morani was able to draw a revolver with which he shot his enemy. Seitender died half an hour later, and Morani will not recover from his wounds.

BUYERS CROWD NEW YORK.

Will Spend $100,000,000 in the Next Few Weeks.

New York, Feb. 19.—The steady inflow of buyers from the west and the south, which began a week or more ago, is constantly increasing and day by day hundreds more are added to the already large army of them in New York.

It is now estimated that there are nearly five thousand of them in New York, each one with orders for large quantities of goods of every description for the spring and summer trade. In almost every case the buyers are enthusiastic over the prospects of business for the future. They say that the financial depression of last fall has passed away, and that there are nothing but good times in sight.

It is estimated that these buyers will spend more than $100,000,000 for goods during the next few weeks.

DR. GILL ANNOUNCES PLAN.

New Move To Be Made In Crusade for Universal Peace.

Stanford, Conn., Feb. 19.—A new move in the crusade for universal peace was made here Tuesday when Mr. Wilson L. Gill, president of the American Patriotic league, announced a plan to establish correspondence between children of the public schools of the United States and children of the public schools in other countries, with the object of producing a better acquaintance between the people of the earth. Such acquaintances, it is believed, would in the future be of value in preventing international disputes. It is proposed to begin with correspondence between school children of this city and pupils of the normal college at Tokyo, Japan.

Dr. Gill says that a number of prominent men, both Americans and foreigners, have approved the plan.

J. M. Brown May Enter Race.

Atlanta, Feb. 19—For several days past rumors have been rife around the capitol that former Railroad Commissioner Joseph M. Brown would get into the race for governor before the coming primary, and also what seems more probable, that he would make the race for railroad commissioner. Mr. Brown has given out no statement of his intentions as to either proposition, but his friends insist that he has had them both under serious consideration, and that there is a probability of his being heard from at an early date.

Gave Bail of $2,500.

New York, Feb. 19.—Foster M. Voorhees, former governor of New Jersey, and Frank G. Combes, of Philadelphia, who were indicted by the grand jury on charges of perjury, have surrendered to the district attorney. They were arraigned before Justice Dowling in the supreme court and gave bail in the sum of $2,500 each.

Master Painters Meet.

New Orleans, Feb. 19.—The twenty-fourth annual convention of the Master Painters and Decorators' Association of the United States and Canada opened here Monday afternoon with about 600 delegates present. Sessions will be held for the next four consecutive days.

MINERS ARE RESCUED

Were Entombed In Mid-Valley Colliery, Pa.

ONE OF THEM LOST HIS LIFE

After Being Buried for Several Hours Twenty-Seven Men Are Finally Rescued from the Mine by Their Comrades.

Shamokin, Pa., Feb. 19.—All but one of the twenty-eight men and boys who were entombed Monday in the Mid-Valley colliery were rescued Tuesday morning.

Frank Orloskie, a miner of Mid-Valley, fell down a chute after the accident and was killed.

When the rescuing party penetrated to the entombed men it was found that the men had dug for a great distance through the fall of coal.

There were but few persons at the entrance to the drift when the rescued men reached the surface.

The men quickly made their way to their homes showing no bad effect of their experience.

TERRORISTS LEAVING FINLAND.

Recent Appointment Caused Excitement Among Them.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 19.—The appointment of General Von Boeckman to be governor of Finland has produced much excitement among the revolutionists and terrorists who in the past have found Finland a convenient base of operations for plots of all kinds.

They are now leaving in great numbers, most of them going to Sweden. This clearing Finland of plotters will greatly facilitate the work of the Russian police in guarding the lives of prominent personages in St. Petersburg.

Practically all the assassinations of the past year have been committed by terrorists who came direct from Finland the day they committed the crime a method which permitted them to escape police observation.

IN CRITICAL CONDITION.

Senator Latimer, of South Carolina, Undergoes Operation.

Washington, Feb. 19.—Senator Latimer, of South Carolina, was operated upon at Providence hospital here Monday for what is known as a twist of the bowels, and is in a critical condition.

He has been ill for several days and his malady, a dangerous one, became so serious that he was sent to the hospital and all plans made for an immediate operation.

This was performed Monday morning and at its conclusion it was announced that while hope was felt for his recovery, the outcome was by no means certain.

FATAL ACCIDENTS TO TWO.

One Man Killed by Train, Another by His Own Gun.

Birmingham, Ala., Feb. 19.—Julius Livsey, aged twenty-three, attempted to board a Southern railway switch engine Monday morning in East Birmingham and fell in front of it, receiving injuries which caused death in a few minutes.

B. L. Dunn, a collector for an Ensley Furniture store, was shot and killed Tuesday morning at Wylam, a mining camp a few miles away. Dunn had a double barreled shotgun with him, and as he got into his buggy the gun was accidentally discharged.

Edison's Secretary Suicides.

West Orange, N. J., Feb. 19.—J. F. Randolph, treasurer of the Edison Manufacturing company, of which Thomas A. Edison is president, committed suicide Monday in the cellar of his residence on New Valley way, by shooting himself in the head. It is believed that Mr. Randolph was temporarily insane, as neither in his business nor his family affairs was there any known cause for such an act. This belief was given further credence by the knowledge that a near relative became mentally unbalanced a few years ago.

OUR WASHINGTON NEWS LETTER

The Present a Great Opportunity for Democratic Success.

QUARREL OF THE REPUBLICANS

Is Most Bitter in History of Party. Probability of Passage of Another Burdensome Pension Bill—Anti-Bryan Democrats.

Washington, D. C. Feb. 19.—"If ever there was an opportunity for Democratic victory this is it," said a prominent Democratic member of the Senate today. "Why, the Republicans are fighting like the famous Kilkenny cats. The President and Taft are determined that their policies shall triumph, regardless of the welfare of the party, and the opposition would rather split the party wide open than endure another four years of Rooseveltism, whether it is administered by Teddy himself or by Taft. The latest plan of the anti-Roosevelt crowd is to carry the Republican National Convention with 'rotten borough' delegations from the South which can be counted on to vote against Taft and for such other candidate as will pay the highest price. These delegations are almost entirely composed of negroes who will sell out at the drop of the hat, but there is no danger of their selling to the Taft people, because the Taft crowd has not got the price. Well, we on this side can look on with entire equanimity. I hope, indeed, that they will succeed, for the American people will not stand for that kind of politics, and it will mean the election of Bryan, surer than fate."

Senator Stone of Missouri, talking of the professed intention of the Democrats to revise the tariff, said today: "Did you notice how Mr. Cannon treated those members of the National Manufacturers' Association who came to Washington to ask Congress to appoint a tariff commission? They came at the instance of Senator Beveridge. They were all Republicans who have enjoyed the benefits of protection until they have got enough, and they want a little bit of the tariff wall shaved off. And yet Cannon treated them with contempt. Now, what have we to expect if the Republicans win the next election? Cannon will be Speaker again, and he will be just as much of the standpatter as he is today. The people have got to elect a Democratic President if they want tariff revision, just as they did in 1892. This talk of Republican tariff revision is all a bluff."

Senator Aldrich is driving his financial bill through the Senate with his usual skill. The Democrats are all opposed to it, and many of the Republicans are against it, but they are afraid of Aldrich to a man, and the Democrats, who constitute only one-third of the Upper House, are powerless to do anything without the help of the Republicans. The President has announced that he favors the Aldrich bill, and when Aldrich and the President get together no Republican dares raise his voice in protest.

The anti-Bryan Democrats very nearly executed a neat little coup the other day. They purposed to elect Representative Ryan of Virginia to the chairmanship of the Democratic Congressional Committee. It was a little scheme of Thos. F. Ryan of New York, who is a distant cousin of Representative Ryan. Some of the members of the Senate learned of the game Mr. Ryan of Interborough Railway fame was putting up, however, and blocked it in the eleventh hour.

It looks very much as if the country was going to be burdened with another and more than ever infamous pension bill. This is a bill to pension every widow of every man who served 90 days or longer in the Civil War, and to raise the pensions of all widows from $8 to $12 a month. Speaker Cannon is back of the bill, which will cost the country about $12,000,000 a year in addition to the $151,000,000 it is already spending for pensions, but they say that Mr. Cannon thinks it will help him to gain the Republican Presidential nomination, and as he does not have to pay the bill he considers it cheap at the price. Of course most of the real widows of veterans are dead, that is, women who were the wives of veterans during the war, but this bill gives pensions to all that host of young women, many of them of not too enviable reputations, who have married old soldiers many years their senior in order to secure the old men's pensions after their death.

Mr. Bryan has declared in favor of the guarantee of all deposits in National banks, these to be secured by a sort of insurance fund to be accumulated by a tax on all deposits to be paid into the National treasury. The Democrats in both houses of Congress favor this scheme, and an earnest effort will be made to add it as an amendment to the Aldrich bill, but as the bankers are opposed to it it will probably fail.

The Secretary of War has issued a general order creating a Division of Militia in the War Department. This division will have charge of all the relations of the militia to the regular army, such as joint manoeuvres, etc. It is to be in charge of Colonel E. M. Weaver who is known to many National Guardsmen as the officer who had charge of the joint manoevures of the militia and the Coast Defense Artillery last summer. Hitherto, Colonel Weaver has been Assistant Chief of Artillery.

If Democrats quarrel often it takes Republicans to quarrel bitterly. The spectacle of Senator Foraker denouncing the President, of a Republican Representative denouncing Mr. Foraker, and of the President putting the Senator from Ohio in the already overcrowded Ananias Club, are distinctly Republican and are typical of the brotherly love which at present characterizes the Republican party.

Lost His Bicycle.

Dr. Jas. M. Farr, vice-president of the University, had the misfortune to have his bicycle stolen on Monday night, the thief taking the wheel from the front piazza of his home some time during the night.

The matter has been reported to the officers, and the Doctor's friends trust that he will be fortunate enough to have the wheel restored.

CAMP HAS BEEN BROKEN.

The Uniontown Crowd Will Soon Return to Their Northern Home.

The jolly Uniontown, Pa., hunting party, who have been accustomed for the past few years of spending a month or six weeks in camp near Palmer annually, have broken camp for this year, and, to use the expression, have "scattered to the winds." The outing this season proved thoroughly enjoyable, notwithstanding that game seemed scarce compared with other seasons.

There were several ladies from Uniontown with the party, but they remained in the city, with the exception of an occasional visit to the camp to spend the day.

Of the Uniontown crowd this season Mrs. Higginbotham, Mrs. S. Batton, Miss Katie Batton and Miss Annie Kennedy remained here at The White House, and, with O. W. Kennedy and L. O. Batton, members of the hunting party, are still here. Commodore R. W. Beall, Dr. John Batton and Morgan Higginbotham are spending a few days hunting in the West End, while the two remaining members of the party, Judge Reppert and George Bailey, are at Archer in an effort to bag additional game.

This is one of the jolliest parties as a whole who ever visited this section, and their numerous friends always receive them with the greatest pleasure.

SYMPTOMS OF CATARRH

The price of a complete outfit is but $1 if it cures, nothing if it fails.

Wednesday Night's Fire.

An alarm of fire was turned in from Box 64 at 7:45 Wednesday night, which summoned the department with its usual promptness to a house in the vicinity of the Tampa and Jacksonville depot.

There appeared to be more fright than fire, however, as the flames were extinguished with but little damage.

The Circuit Court.

The entire day was spent in the circuit court yesterday in the hearing of the case of the Pepper Publishing & Printing Co. vs. the Gainesville and Gulf railway, assumpsit. The case was not concluded at the regular time for adjournment, and the same was carried over until 9 o'clock this morning.

Miss Clifford Faircloth, a charming young lady of Dothan, Ala., is in the city. While here she will be the guest of her brother, Chas. A. Faircloth, and her friend, Miss Eula Clark.

Addison Pound has accepted a position temporarily at the store of L. J. Burkhim, during the absence of J. Fletcher Burnett, who was summoned to Montana as a witness in an important murder case.

B. Dougherty, formerly of High Springs but now of Jacksonville, where he is engaged in the contracting business, is here for a day or two on business, and his old friends are glad to welcome him.

Chas. Y. Crawford, senior member of the firm of Crawford & Davis, liverymen, has gone to points in Tennessee, Kentucky and Missouri, for the purpose of purchasing stock. He will be absent several days.

Miss Addie Goode and her friend, Miss Nettie Arms of Kentucky, who is here as the former's guest, have returned from a delightful visit to the Tampa Fair, St. Petersburg, Clearwater and other points in South Florida.

Miss Bessie Rhodin of Flemington has accepted a position as operator at the central office of the East Florida Telephone Company in this city. Miss Rhodin is an experienced operator, and will no doubt give excellent service.

Robt. Ford of Micanopy was in the city yesterday, and while here purchased three fine horses. Mr Ford has been engaged in the livery business, but recently sold to A. T. Gunter. It was for trading purposes that he purchased the horses yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Shands left yesterday for Tampa, where they will spend a day or two with the former's mother and sister. Mr. Shands is president of The Gainesville National Bank, and from Tampa will proceed to St. Petersburg, where he will attend the meeting of the Florida State Bankers' Association.

L. J. Burkhim has returned from Baltimore and other markets, where he went a few days ago to purchase his spring and summer line of clothing and gentlemen's furnishings. Mr. Burkhim says he secured the "swellest lot ever," which he will talk about in The Sun as soon as the stock arrives.

Mrs. Julia Jones and her charming daughter, Miss Daisy, after a delightful visit of two weeks to Mr. and Mrs. H. O. McArthur in this city, left yesterday for their home in Wilmington, N. C. While here many had the pleasure of meeting them, and they made many friends who hope to have the pleasure of another visit at some future time.

Mrs. W. S. Dorsey and interesting children have returned from a pleasant visit to Jacksonville and Fernandina, and friends are glad to welcome them back again. They were the guests of Mrs. J. D. Russell and Mr. and Mrs. Byron Dorsey in Jacksonville, while the time was spent with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Brownfield in Fernandina.

Miss Clara Wells, who for some time has been connected with the East Florida Telephone Company in the capacity of operator at the central exchange, has severed her connection with that company. Miss Wells is an experienced operator, and by her willing and accommodating manner has made many friends over the entire system who will miss her.

Monroe Venable and Thomas Hodgson of Archer have returned to their home, after a brief visit to this city. They are enthusiastic Pythians, and came to attend the exercises of the commemoration of the forty-fourth anniversary of the order by Mount Vernon Lodge on Tuesday night. Mr. Venable is a naval stores operator and manufacturer of lumber, while Mr Hodgson is a member of the firm of Hodgson & Wood, general merchants.

AT THE OPERA HOUSE.

The Murray Comedy Company Will Open Three-Night Stand Tonight.

Many new faces will be seen with J. Rus. Smith's famous Murray Comedy Company this season. They open a three-nights' engagement at Edwards' Opera House tonight, producing a beautiful four-act comedy-drama, a well-written portrayal of New York life, brim full of interesting and exciting events, a series of well-contrived dramatic situations interspersed with comedy. The company is stronger than ever and consists of eighteen people, headed by Miss Dorothy Smith and Alvah Simms, late of the Empire Stock Company. A full line of specialties will be given between each act, which alone are well worth the price of admission.

For tonight one lady will be admitted free with each paid 50-cent ticket, if purchased before 6 o'clock.

FOR YOUR SUNDAY DINNER

try the following delightful dessert:
½ cup English Walnut meats.
½ doz. figs, cut up fine.
1 10c package JELL-O, any flavor.
Dissolve the JELL-O in a pint of boiling water. When cool and just commencing to thicken stir in the figs and nuts. Serve with Whipped Cream. Delicious. The walnuts, figs and JELL-O can be bought at any good grocery. This makes enough dessert for a large family and is very economical.

Prominent Atlantan Here.

Joel Hunt, a prominent citizen of Atlanta, Ga., has arrived in the city. Mr. Hunt is an enthusiastic sportsman, and came to spend ten days in a fox hunt with Sheriff L. W. Fennell. He brought his own dogs—a half-dozen registered fox hounds, and today Messrs. Hunt and Fennell expect to leave for a point about twelve miles west of Gainesville, where foxes are said to roam plentifully. They will take a well-equipped provision wagon and will spend several days in the woods.

WHO KILLED COCK ROBIN?

The New York World of February 17th has the following editorial:

Who saved Florida from sending an unopposed delegation of Federal officeholders to Chicago? Who brought about the election of a contesting delegation at the St. Augustine convention on February 6? That is the burning question.

Representative Butler Ames of Lowell, Mass., says he did it. He toured Florida in a special car for ten days just before the State convention and stirred up the anti-Taft revolt.

Judson Douglas Wetmore, a New York lawyer, says he did it. He was in Florida as an envoy of the National Hughes League and made an anti-Taft speech the night before the convention.

The Rev. John H. Dickerson, an influential negro preacher of Jacksonville, says he did it. He was made chairman of the convention, and after the row started was pulled off the platform three times and had the chair taken from under him half a dozen times; but his side elected four anti-Taft delegates-at-large and he is one of them.

Who did kill Cock Robin? It is very generous in the three claimants for the honor to speak up like the sparrow and for each to confess that he did it, but what difference will it make if after the anti-Taft delegates reach the convention they find Cock Robin was not killed and they are assigned to seats in the gallery instead of on the floor?

Hon. E. S. Matthews, editor of The Starke Telegraph and Speaker of the Florida House of Representatives, is again a candidate for the Legislature. There was never a more popular presiding officer of the House or a more faithful representative of his people than 'Gene Matthews, and the people of Bradford county will no doubt return him to the important post of duty to which they have for two consecutive terms assigned him.

The Republican program for tariff revision is to revise it higher, by imposing maximum tariff rates above the present high rates, which will be called the minimum rates. How the trusts and combines must be laughing in their sleeves, and how willingly they will "come down" to carry out such a program.

Mr. Bryan goes to New York and says something about a "subsidized press." Murder, fire, police, riot, and ruin! Mr. Roosevelt sends a message to Congress mentioning the matter. Lovely, grand, sublime! At least, that is the way a contemporary sizes it.

"The farther South one goes the less nervous are the people," says Dr. Worcester; whereupon The Boston Transcript cites "prohibition" as an evidence to the contrary. Still, there's Maine, you know.

The merchant whose mind is too often alienated from planning and devising his advertising is falling into business peril!

Taft ought to tackle a man his size—if there is another one in all Christendom.

KENTUCKY'S DEADLOCK.

The Chicago Record-Herald analyzes the Senatorial deadlock in the Blue Grass State as follows:

"Politics in Kentucky never becomes a mild and harmless diversion. Since the late election gave to the people of the Blue Grass State a Republican executive—the third since 1865, if Taylor be counted as a Republican Governor—the Democrats, who know that the party needs every Senatorial vote it can muster in Washington, have been further stirred by the spectacular Senatorial contest which may result in giving William O. Bradley, the first Republican Governor after the war—he served as such from 1895 to 1899—a still higher distinction—the United States Senatorship. His friends contend that if they sit tight and the sextet of Democrats who have bolted Beckham remain faithful in their unfaith, the chances are that a Republican will win the honor, and William O'Connell Bradley, who has received the Republican nomination four times, feels that since he suffered defeat with his party he should be the one to share its success.

"With a majority of eight on a joint ballot, the revolt of six Democrats against former Governor J. C. W. Beckham, the nominee of the Democratic primaries held in 1906, may mean Democratic defeat, since even the intercession of William J. Bryan in behalf of Beckham seems to have left the six disaffected ones as determined in their opposition as they were before his coming.

"The six Democratic legislators who are voting against the nominee of the party are equally divided between the House and Senate. Charlton, McNutt and Campbell are State Senators, and McKnight, Lillard and Mueller are members of the Lower House. The votes which Governor Beckham needs to insure his election they have given to McCreary and Blackburn, who now represent the State in the United States Senate. Naturally their course is attracting some attention, and the comments passed are not of the gentlest kind. Bolter and sorehead are the least offensive terms applied to them. They are accused of representing the liquor interests, who, Beckham's friends assert, hold the former Governor responsible for the enforcement of the Sunday laws. He is to be punished for closing the saloon on Sunday.

"His opponents, on the other hand, declare that the election of Beckham at the State primary was a snap one being called a year ahead of time; that the primaries were fraudulent; that the State Senators chosen in 1905 should not be held by the instructions of a 1906 primary, and that the defeat of Mr. Hager, the Democratic candidate for Governor, and Beckham's man, showed that the State was tired of the man, under whose administration, Colonel Watterson says, Kentucky 'became the worst governed State in the Union.'

"Louisville seems to be the center of the opposition to former Governor Beckham. The only Democratic representative elected from Jefferson county, in which that city is located, announced when he was a candidate that he would not vote for Beckham, and his announcement met signal reward. The Louisville Courier-Journal is bitter in its opposition, and that in Kentucky the game of statecraft has lost none of its tumultuous and picturesque qualities is shown in a flamboyant defiance which it recently hurled in the teeth of the Beckham followers:

"'Naturally The Courier-Journal has not been able to fall down and grovel at the feet of power at Frankfort. The awful majesty of Beckham, the awe-inspiring pulssance of a Haly, the spectacular performance of a Brown, Jones and Robinson of the Hell-Roaring Horse have neither dazzled nor terrorized. * * * Soon or late those who profited by the murder of Goebel, and who make at once a merit and a profit by trafficking with his murderers, will stand revealed in their own deformity and will come to their true deserts. * * * As for The Courier-Journal, it can wait, but it waits with a gatling gun in easy reach and a legion of Kentucky Democrats by its side, 40,000 strong, who have sworn to the Lord of Hosts that they will never march under a banner inscribed Beckham, Haly, Brown & Co., office brokers and bucket-shop gamblers, using Democracy as a cloak for perfidy and pharisaism with the enemy and traitors to the cause.'

"Eight years ago John Crepps Wickliffe Beckham, a Kentuckyian born and bred, who had taught school, practiced law and served in the Kentucky Legislature as member and speaker, was a youthful politician, who, through the tragic death of Governor Goebel, became the Governor of a great commonwealth. He has served in that capacity two terms, and during his regime showed a talent for statecraft that few suspected he possessed. Tactful and magnetic, his personality has won his friends who now declare him the victim of persecution and party disloyalty. On the other hand, many believe that he has neglected his duty to the State in building up a political machine through which he hoped to reach the goal of his ambition—the Senate. Blackburn and McCreary, two old Democratic war horses, have been sacrificed to further this ambition, and their friends are loud in his denunciation.

"William O'Connell Bradley, his Republican opponent, who receives every Republican vote cast in the joint assembly, is the man whom Goebel succeeded. In a State long considered hopelessly Democratic he accepted nominations from his party, having been a candidate for Congress, for Vice-President, for Senator and for Governor. Defeated many times, he at last won the Governorship in 1895, and during his term of office saw a Republican Senator sent from Kentucky. While not so youthful a man as Beckham, he is still young, having been born March 18, 1847."

DeLand now has telephone connection with Jacksonville, the DeLand Telephone Company having completed arrangements with the Bell Telephone Company for a long distance service between Jacksonville and DeLand.

The Miami News-Record of recent date says: "One of the most difficult jobs in embalming ever performed in this city was accomplished successfully yesterday by W. W. Smith, the professional embalmer, who is now connected with H. M. King of this city. The work was that of preserving the carcass of the monster trunk-back turtle which was captured last week by Capt. Chas. Thompson, and died a short time after being placed in the aquarium. The turtle was embalmed at the request of Geo. T. Bishop of Cleveland, O., who was with Capt. Thompson when it was caught. Mr. Bishop will send the big reptile to his northern home, where it will be prepared to occupy a permanent place in his residence. No doubt the turtle will prove a great curiosity to those who see it at Mr. Bishop's home, as it is indeed a rare animal, and even in these waters, where they live the year round, these peculiar looking things are objects of great interest."

Even from the Mountains

Ballard's Snow Liniment is praised for the good it does. A sure cure for rheumatism and all pains. Wright W. Irving, Grand Junction, Colo., writes: "I used Ballard's Snow Liniment last winter for rheumatism and can recommend it as the best Liniment on the market. I thought, at the time I was taken down with this trouble, that it would be a week before I could get about, but on applying your Liniment several times during the night, I was about in 48 hours and well in three days." A SUMMARY OF FLORIDA LAWS FOR THE PROTECTION OF BIRDS, THEIR NESTS AND EGGS.

Sundry—Whoever uses fire arms by hunting game or firing at targets upon Sunday shall be punished by imprisonment not exceeding twenty days, or by a fine not exceeding $25.

Plume Birds—It shall be unlawful for any person to kill in this State, for the purpose of sale or commercial traffic, any of the following plume birds: Crane, egret, ibis, curlew, or heron. It shall be unlawful for any person to purchase, trade or traffic in any of the plumed birds herinbefore mentioned, or for commercial purposes to purchase, trade or traffic in the plumes or pelfry of the said plumed birds of the State. Penalty for violation of these laws, a fine not exceeding three hundred dollars or imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding six months.

Wild Birds—No person shall within the State of Florida, kill or catch or have in his possession, living or dead, any wild bird other than a game bird, nor shall purchase, offer, or expose for sale any such wild bird after it has been killed or caught. No part of the plumage, skin, or body of any bird protected by this section shall be sold or had in possession for sale.

Nests and Eggs—No person shall within the State of Florida, take or needless destroy the nest or the eggs of any wild bird nor shall have such nest or eggs in his or her possession.

These laws protect gulls, terns, plume and all other wild birds, also their nests and eggs, at all times, but do not include game birds in their season. The English sparrow, sharp-skinned hawk, Cooper's hawk, great horned owl, crow, jackdaw, and butcher-bird are not protected by these laws.

Penalty for violation of above laws—Any person destroying wild birds, or their nests, or taking their eggs, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and when convicted therefor, shall be fined five dollars for each offense, and an additional five dollars for each bird, living or dead, or part of bird, or nest or eggs possessed in violation of this section, or to imprisonment for ten days or both, at the discretion of the court. This does not apply to any person holding a proper certificate permitting the holder thereof to take birds and their nests and eggs for scientific purposes only.

Game Birds—No person or persons shall have in his or her or their possession, or shall hunt or kill, any wild turkey, quail, or partridge in any part of the State, save only from the first day of November until the first day of March of any year. No person shall kill more than four wild turkeys, or more than twenty-five quail, and no party of two or more persons shall kill more than six wild turkeys or more than fifty quail in one day. And no person or persons, firm, corporation, association, or company shall sell, expose for sale, or have in his, her, or their possession for sale in this State any wild turkey, quail, or partridge. It shall be unlawful for any person to entrap any quail except on his own enclosed, cultivated premises. For any violation of this law the penalty is a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars or more than one hundred dollars, or imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding sixty days or less than thirty days. Any person or persons, firm or corporation who shall ship any wild turkeys, quail or partridge beyond the limits of the county in which the same were killed shall be fined not more than one hundred dollars or less than twenty-five dollars or be imprisoned in the county jail not more than six months or less than three months. The same penalty will be imposed upon any common carrier, or any agent or employe of any such common carrier who shall receive for carriage or permit carriage of any such wild turkey, quail or partridge across any county line in this State. Provided: Hunters or hunting partiesmay take their game home with them in this State, but not for sale. It is unlawful to kill wild ducks between April 1 and October 1. Fine not to exceed fifty dollars or imprisonment not more than thirty days, or both. The game birds of the State are: Swans, geese, brant, duck, rails, coot, mudhens, gallinules, plovers, snipe, woodcock, sandpipers, tatlers, curlews, wild turkeys, partridge or quail, turtle doves, and robins.

To enter upon the enclosed lands of another that are posted, to hunt or fish, fine twenty dollars.

Law for Non-residents of Florida—All non-residents before hunting wild game in this State shall apply to the clerk of the circuit court of the county the said non-resident proposes to hunt in, for a permit to hunt in said county. Fee $10. This permit expires on the first day of March following the date of its issue, and is not transferable. Penalty for violation of this law: a fine of not more than one hundred dollars or imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding ninety days. Provided: that the provisions of this act shall not apply to counties having special game laws.

Female Weakness

"Last Fall," writes Mrs. S. G. Bailey, of Tunnelton, W. Va., "I was going down by inches, from female disease, with great pain. After taking Cardui, 'Oh! My! How I was benefited! I am not well yet, but am so much better that I will keep on taking Wine of Cardui till I am perfectly cured."

Despite the envious attacks of jealous enemies and rivals, Cardui still holds supreme position today [as in the past 70 years] for the relief and cure of female diseases. It stops pain, tones up the organs, regulates the functions, and aids in the replacement of a misplaced organ.

Did you ever see any one trying to wash themselves without soap or water?

If you did what would you say of him?

It is every bit as foolish to try to get rid of Dandruff and to prevent Baldness by feeding the germs which cause it, with Cantharides, Vaseline, Glycerine and similar substances which form the principal ingredients of most so-called Hair Vigors.

Newbro's Herpicide is successful because it attacks and kills the parasitic germ which feeds on the hair roots.

It is the original and only genuine scalp germicide manufactured.

ALACHUA COUNTY IN NORTHERN DISTRICT

Congressman Clark's Bill Has Been Signed By President.

FIRST TERM OF COURT IN MAY

Bill in Full as it Passed Congress and Became a Law—"Get-There" Congressman Scores Another Victory for His People—More Coming.

Some weeks ago The Sun gave the information that Congressman Frank Clark's bill providing for the transfer of Alachua county from the Southern to the Northern District of the United States court and for the holding of regular terms of said court in Gainesville, had passed both houses of Congress. Yesterday information was received that the bill had been signed by President Roosevelt on February 6th, and consequently it is now a law.

Omitting the title and enacting clause, the bill provides—

That the county of Alachua, in the State of Florida, which is now in the Southern Judicial District of said State, be, and the same is hereby, transferred to and made a part of the Northern Judicial District of said State.

Sec. 2. That all cases, civil and criminal, which arose in said county of Alachua, and which are now pending in the courts of said Southern Judicial District of Florida, shall remain and be disposed of in said courts, and all persons who have committed offenses against the United States in said county shall be prosecuted and tried as though this act had not been passed.

Sec. 3. That there shall be held at the city of Gainesville, in the said county of Alachua, terms of both circuit and district courts for said northern district of Florida on the first Monday in May and on the first Monday in December of each year.

Sec. 4. That suitable rooms and accommodations shall be furnished for holding said court free of expense to the Government of the United States until such time as a Federal building shall be prepared for that purpose in said city of Gainesville, in the State of Florida.

Approved, February 6, 1908.

Blizzard in Iowa.

Des Moines, Iowa, Feb. 19.—Tuesday a blizzard started during the night and raged through this part of the state, delaying trains, stopping street car traffic and interfering with telegraph and telephone communication. Eight inches of snow has fallen and is drifting badly.

Kills Railroad Rate Bill.

Columbia, S. C., Feb. 19.—By a majority vote the state senate has killed the railroad rate bill. This means that there will be no railroad rate legislation in South Carolina at the present session of the general assembly.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle

Women Who Wear Well.

It is astonishing how great a change a few years of married life often make in the appearance and disposition of many women. The freshness, the charm, the brilliance vanish like the bloom from a peach which is rudely handled. The matron is only a dim shadow, a faint echo of the charming maiden. There are two reasons for this change, ignorance and neglect. Few young women appreciate the shock to the system through the change which comes with marriage and motherhood. Many neglect to deal with the unpleasant pelvic drains and weaknesses which too often come with marriage and motherhood, not understanding that this secret drain is robbing the cheek of its freshness and the form of its fairness.

As surely as the general health suffers when there is derangement of the health of the delicate womanly organs, so surely when these organs are established in health the face and form at once witness to the fact in renewed comeliness. Nearly a million women have found health and happiness in the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. Ingredients on label—contains no alcohol or harmful habit-forming drugs. Made wholly of those native, American, medicinal roots most highly recommended by leading medical authorities of all the several schools of practice for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments.

For nursing mothers, or for those broken-down in health by too frequent bearing of children, also for the expectant mothers, to prepare the system for the coming of baby and making its advent easy and almost painless, there is no medicine quite so good as "Favorite Prescription." It can do no harm in any condition of the system. It is a most potent invigorating tonic and strengthening nervine nicely adapted to woman's delicate system by a physician of large experience in the treatment of woman's peculiar ailments.

Dr. Pierce may be consulted by letter free of charge. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y.

TO INCREASE ITS STOCK.

Atlanta National Bank Becomes Practically $2,000,000 Institution.

Atlanta, Feb. 19.—The Atlanta National bank, the first national bank established in the city and perhaps the first in the south, an institution whose name has always been a synonym for financial strength and sound conservative business methods, announced on Monday that it would at an early date increase its capital stock from $500,000 to $1,000,000, and its surplus from $700,000 to $850,000, making in round numbers a two-million-dollar banking house and with five millions of deposits entrusted to it, giving a working capital of practically seven million dollars.

A more important financial announcement has never been made in Atlanta and the increase in capital and surplus is certain to give the Atlanta National prestige and influence even greater than it has enjoyed in the past.

Will Oppose Bailey.

Dallas, Tex., Feb. 19.—George W. Biddle, chairman of the Democratic Club of Texas, has issued a call to the democrats of Texas to hold a state convention in Waco on March 7. The stated purpose of the convention is to take steps to prevent United States Senator J. W. Bailey from being sent to the national convention at Denver as a delegate at large and "to fight against the evils in political and official life which have come to be generally grouped under the name of Baileyism."

Reward for His Courtesy.

New York, Feb. 19.—Presumably because of his courtesies to them while they were obtaining their marriage license at the city hall Lieutenant William Kennel, in charge of the mayor's office, has received from the Count and Countess Szechenyi a present of a set of amethyst waistcoat buttons, cuff buttons and shirt studs. Monday Lieutenant Kennel obtained permission from Mayor McClellan to accept the gift which was sent by a messenger to the city hall.

Crime of Car Robbers.

Washington, Feb. 19.—The Southern railway has received a report from Birmingham, Ala., regarding the murder of J. H. Crawford, its special officer there, saying that the crime was committed by car robbers, two of whom were subsequently found dead, presumably shot by Crawford, as two empty chambers were found in the latter's revolver. Both are negroes, and a third is under arrest charged with being implicated in the crime.

TRAIN KILLS HEROINE.

Little Girl Tried to Say Boy Companion Near Emerson, Ga.

Cartersville, Ga., Feb. 19.—In a desperate attempt to save her little six-year-old companion, David Rogers, who was menaced by a rapidly approaching train, Lilly May Kline, twelve years of age, of Emerson, Ga., was caught and with the child in her arms ground to death under the wheels of an L. and N. freight engine. To add horror to the terrible tragedy, the father of the young girl was standing helplessly by and witnessed the scene.

The accident occurred at 4:30 Monday afternoon, as the children were returning from school.

Just as the children reached a point opposite the works of the Tennessee Coal and Iron company at Bartow, a freight train was heard approaching. Little David Rogers, with Lily May Kline, was walking on one side of the track, while Mr. Kline was on the other. Suddenly the little boy started to cross the track. He did not realize how close the train was upon him until he got between the rails; then, looking up and seeing the train only a few feet away, he was seized with fright and stopped.

Lily May, seeing the danger of the child, rushed upon the track, and with a superhuman effort raised him in her arms, but she was an instant too late, for quick as a flash the engine bore her down, and with the child still in her arms, crushed them to death.

Stage of 47 Feet Reached.

Gallipolis, O., Feb. 19.—The crest of the Ohio river flood passed this section Tuesday, a stage of 47 feet having been reached. The river is full of the heaviest floating ice that has passed here since 1884. Pottery, Point Pleasant and Henderson are partly inundated. There is much suffering on account of the extreme cold.

CATARRH BLOOD UNHEALTHY SYSTEM DERANGED

The entire inner portion of the body is covered with mucous membrane; this membranous tissue is abundantly supplied with blood vessels, veins, arteries, and capillaries. Each of these is constantly supplying to this tissue or lining, blood to nourish and strengthen it and keep the system healthy. When the blood becomes infected with catarrhal matter it is not able to furnish the required amount of healthful properties, but feeds the parts with impurities which disease the membranes and tissues so that they become irritated and inflamed, and Catarrh, with all its disagreeable and dangerous symptoms, is established in the system. There is a constant ringing in the ears, a thin, watery discharge from the nostrils, the breath has an offensive odor, slight fever often accompanies the disease, and gradually the entire health becomes affected and the system upset and deranged. In its earlier stages, when Catarrh is confined to the nose and throat, sprays, washes, inhalations, etc., are soothing and in a way beneficial, because they are cleanly and usually antiseptic, but such treatment has no curative effect, because it does not reach the blood. To cure Catarrh the blood must be purified, and this is just what S. S. S does. It goes down into the circulation and attacks the disease at its foundation; it removes the cause and makes the blood pure and healthy. Then the blood vessels are filled with fresh, reinvigorated blood, which is carried to all the mucous surfaces and linings, the inflammation and irritation are corrected, the symptoms all disappear, the health is improved and Catarrh is permanently cured. Book on Catarrh and any medical advice free to all who write.

PLACED TIE ON THE TRESTLE.

Northbound Central Railroad Passenger Narrowly Escapes Wreck.

Americus, Ga., Feb. 19—A nearly successful attempt to wreck the northbound Central passenger train was made here Monday afternoon.

A crosstie was placed on Muckalee creek trestle at the end of a sharp curve. The engine struck it under reduced speed, but was not derailed.

Police Chief Feagin and a posse secured a special engine and hurried to the scene of the attempted disaster.

John Hodges, a discharged section hand, was found at the spot and arrested. He denied placing the tie, but confessed that he knew it was there before the train struck it. He is waiting identification by Conductor Smith and others who saw a negro running through the woods as the engine struck the obstruction.

It was a narrow escape from possible frightful disaster.

Senator Clay Doing Well.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 19.—Senator Clay, who has been confined to his room for several days, is still indisposed, but his condition is not at all alarming. On Monday he left the hotel for a walk to his doctor's office. The senator has been suffering with a rather severe cold for the past week, which, in addition to an attack of indigestion, has left him somewhat indisposed. For the past year he has been troubled by a chronic stomach complaint.

Foreman Kills Himself.

Fitzgerald, Ga., Feb. 19.—W. D. Burpee, foreman of the A. B. and A. shops, committed suicide Monday at his home by shooting. A few minutes before 1 o'clock he was talking with some of his friends. After they left he went upstairs. Lying down on the bed he placed the muzzle of a revolver against his chest, and shot directly through the heart, dying before anyone could reach him. No cause for the act has been found. He leaves a wife and several children.

Thought To Be Incendiary.

Columbus, Ga., Feb. 19—The office of Magistrate G. W. Cargill, in Bozeman's district, east of Columbus, two store buildings owned by W. H. H. Blankenship, two stocks of goods and a shoe shop were destroyed by fire at an early hour Monday. It is suspected that the fire was incendiary. All of Judge Cargill's papers and his docket for the approaching term of court were burned. The loss is partly covered by insurance.

Why We Sleep.

The well known explanation that the stuffiness of the atmosphere in a church is the cause of sleepiness in members of the congregation is, according to the Revue Scientifique (Paris), "insufficient." If this hypothesis were tenable, argues our authority, it is manifest that the congregation, or those members of it who react readily to a soporific agent, would go to sleep before the sermon began. Now, it is notorious that the sleeping is done during the sermon. The true explanation is that the auditor unconsciously hypnotizes himself or herself by concentrating the gaze for a long period on a single object, whether the countenance of the preacher or the pulpit or what not. The more desperate the effort to heed the sermon the ...er this effect of self hypnotization. Those who sleep during the sermon are consequently the very members of a congregation who are entitled to the highest praise for their conscientious effort to follow the words of the preacher.—Current Literature.

One System That Won.

"He who breaks the bank today will be broken by the bank tomorrow," was a favorite saying of M. Blanc, founder of the casino at Monte Carlo. There have been many systems that were called infallible invented for the purpose of breaking the bank from the D'Alembert to the Rosslyn and Labouchere, but only one of them all has ever given the keepers of the bank a moment's real anxiety. This was the discovery of a keen eyed old lady who observed that if the croupier spun with certain numbers opposite him certain other numbers inevitably won. As a matter of fact, it was all very simple. The roulette wheel had become warped and was not quite round and thus invariably stuck at easily ascertainable points. This little discovery put 300,000 francs into the pockets of the old lady and her accomplices before M. Blanc bought the secret for 70,000 francs.—Westminster Gazette.

Easily Settled.

Nurse—Doctor, a sponge is missing. Possibly you sewed it up inside the patient. Eminent Surgeon—Thank you. Remind me to add $10 to the bill for material.—Puck.

Nearly all other Cough Cures are constipating, especially those containing opiates. Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup moves the bowels. Contains no opiates.

Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup

"A Cold or a Cough nearly always produces constipation—the water all runs to the eyes, nose and throat instead of passing out of the system through the liver and kidneys. For want of moisture the bowels become dry and hard."

Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup relieves Colds by working them out of the system through a copious action of the bowels.

Madrid and Its Climate.

Along the Mediterranean shore Spain presents a narrow ribbon of fertile, delightful country. The region is often called "the garden of Spain."

It is a great contrast to pass from these tropical shores to the wind swept plains of interior Spain. The level country inclosed by the Guadarrama and the Cantabrian mountains forms in the west an extensive wheat growing region. Toward the east as the rainfall decreases pasturage encroaches upon arable culture. In New Castile, on the south of the Guadarrama and in about the center of Spain, the political capital has been placed. The level country in which it has been dropped, as if by accident, is for the most part a waterless plain, swept in winter by the piercing winds from the naked mountains of the north, sweltering in summer under the effect of the sun's rays on bare rock and soil.

The climate of Madrid has been tersely described by its inhabitants as "three months of winter and nine of hades."

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

FOR MARSHAL.

To the Voters of Gainesville—I take this method of announcing my candidacy for Marshal of the City of Gainesville. I have been on night work as an officer, protecting you and your interests while you were asleep, for about three years, and leave it to you as to whether I have performed my duty well, and with impartiality. I think I have been long enough at night work to be entitled to a day job, and if elected I promise you a faithful, impartial and efficient service. Yours for order. C. L. KITE.

I take this method of announcing my candidacy for re-election as City Marshal at the election April 14th, 1908. I have endeavored to perform my duty without fear or favor, and would appreciate the support of my fellow-citizens, promising the same attention to the duties of the office in the future as in the past. Thanking you for past support, and soliciting your votes at the coming election, I am, Very truly,

BEN T. ARNOW.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for City Marshal in the election to be held on the 14th day of April, 1908. I promise if elected to endeavor to do the duties required by the ordinances as near as I possibly can, and I solicit the votes of all law-abiding citizens. Respectfully,

PHOTOGRAPHY.

Photography today is an economic and social necessity in every community. It maintains the memory and affections of family life through the picture it makes, and which we could not now do without. How often is regret expressed that no picture exists of some friend or relative who is no longer with us! Sometimes, indeed, the camera has to intrude upon the sacredness of the death chamber itself when relatives feel that a photograph in such circumstances is better than none at all. Do not procrastinate. Be wise and "secure the shadow ere the substance fades."

You can get a picture from locket to life-size at Smith's Studio.

CREW'S SUFFERINGS

Adrift For Days In Boat at Mercy of Waves.

THEY WERE FINALLY SAVED

One Died from the Exposure and the Remaining Three Were in a Pitable Condition When Rescued—Mate Relates Story of Trials.

Seattle, Wash., Feb. 19.—A dispatch to the Post Intelligencer from Neah Bay, says:

The crew of the little six-ton sloop Tenkia, lying at anchor here, were startled Monday night by a feeble hail from a steel lifeboat drawing up slowly in the light breeze.

In the boat were the forms of four men, three living and one dead, survivors of the American ship, Emily Reed, wrecked off the mouth of the Nehalem river on the coast of Oregon, two hundred miles from Neah Bay. The men in the boat were:

First Mate Fred Zube, Seaman Ewald Abildsted, Seaman Arthur Jahnke, ship's cook, name unknown.

The dead man was the ship's cook. The three living survivors were in a pitiful condition. Their tongues were swollen so from thirst that at first they could scarcely articulate. They had had no food since last Sunday night nor any water since they left the wreck of the Reed Friday morning.

Story of the Disaster.

Mr. Zube said:

"Almost the instant the Reed struck the beach, she began to break up. In a twinkling one of the life boats was smashed by a big wave and the deck was so deep in the boiling water that there was no chance to get aft where Captain Kersel and his wife with some of the members of the crew were stationed.

"We jumped into the remaining life boat and cut the lashings. Before we had completed the job a big sea broke over the wreck and carried us clear of the decks. A strong current swept us toward the stern of the wreck.

"We could see Captain Kersel and the rest of the ship's company clinging to the roof of the aft house. We yelled to them to throw us a line as we went under the stern and some one threw one but it fell short of our boat.

"My arm had been broken when the wreckage from the galley dropped on to us, and there was only one good oar as the other had been broken and the spare oars washed away. We did our best to get back to the wreck, but the set of the undertow carried us away.

No Compass to Steer by.

"We tried to head for Tillamook Light, but we had no compass to steer by. When morning broke I found we were standing far out to sea. I thought it best to keep the boat well out, hoping to fall into the path of steamships. With this hope I set the course northward along the coast.

"At about 2 o'clock Sunday morning we saw a big steamer. She stopped near us and we all thought we would be saved but the vessel got under way again and left us. We had neither food nor water and we suffered terribly from thirst.

"About 7 o'clock Sunday morning we made into Tattoosh Isle. We were all too tired to manage the boat very well, but along towards Sunday afternoon I got her headed back toward Neah Bay."

Pay of Enlisted Men.

Washington, Feb. 19.—Chairman Tall, of the committee on military affairs, has reported to the house the army appropriation bill carrying a provision for a 27 per cent increase in the pay of enlisted men and non-commissioned officers.

Shot Wife and Self.

Denver, Colo., Feb. 19.—Oscar Kirby, son of a Colorado Springs grocer, shot his bride of two months early on Tuesday and then killed himself with the same weapon. The couple have lived apart since the week of their marriage.

LOCAL OPTION FOR OHIO.

Each County Will Settle the Liquor Question for Itself.

Columbus, O., Feb. 19—The house committee on temperance has voted to recommend the Rose county option bill, seven of the nine members of the committee signing the report. The bill has passed the senate. The action of the committee was taken at the conclusion of a public hearing on the bill held in the hall of representatives.

The only speech made in opposition to the measure was by T. M. Gilmore of Kentucky, president of the National Model License League. Mr. Gilmore declared his belief that the saloon could be made an elevating factor in society, but, that in order to do so, it would have to be treated right and not hounded.

L. D. Lilley, of Columbus, defended the county as a unit in local option, on the ground that the people in the country have as much right as the people in cities to vote upon questions of public policy, because they are taxed to support the courts and the administration of county affairs.

CRUSHED BY TRAIN.

Mangled Body of Woman Identified by Husband's Photograph.

Chicago, Feb. 19.—Through the picture of her husband on a button she wore on her dress, the mangled form of Mrs. Margaret Wilson, wife of John Wilson, was identified Monday night.

Mrs. Wilson had been crushed to death by a Northwestern railroad passenger train at Elmhoth street on Sunday evening.

Beside the picture of her husband, Mrs. Wilson carried nothing that might identify her. The body was so crushed that the features were unrecognizable. Monday night Mr. Wilson saw his likeness without a name in a paper, accompanied by an account of the death of the unknown woman. He immediately went to the county morgue and claimed the body as that of his wife.

TRIAL OF BEACH HARGIS.

Boy Will be Defended by Money of Father He Slew.

Lexington, Ky., Feb. 19.—In the defense of Beach Hargis for the murder of his father, Judge James Hargis, the expenses will be paid out of the $50,000, which is the boy's share of his father's large estate.

When Judge James H. Adams convened the Breathitt circuit court at Jackson Monday the Hargis case was the most important matter waiting action. It is expected that Beach Hargis will be promptly indicted and if this is done his trial for the murder of his father will begin at once. The defense will be self-defense.

ALDRICH BILL CONDEMNED.

Measure Does Not Suit the New York State Bankers.

New York, Feb. 19.—The council of administration of the New York State Bankers' association, put itself on record as "unequivocally disapproving" the provisions of the Aldrich financial bill now pending in the United States senate.

The resolution adopted follows:

"That the bankers of the state of New York, unequivocally disapprove of the provision of the Aldrich bill; that they do not approve of a bond secured for emergency currency; that they demand an elastic currency based on bank assets, as provided in the measure of the currency commission of the currency commission of the American Bankers' association."

Coal for Southern Markets.

Pittsburg, Pa., Feb. 19—More than 5,000,000 bushels of coal will be shipped from this city to Southern markets. The shipments at this time are made possible by high river stages but the evidence of the flood is fast disappearing. A restoration of normal conditions is looked for soon.

Child Burned to Death.

Newnan, Ga., Feb. 19.—The four-year-old daughter of Hon. T. E. Atkinson, brother of the late Governor Atkinson, was frightfully burned Monday while playing around the kitchen stove, and lived but three hours after the accident.

REPORT IS DENIED

No Attempt Made to Assassinate King Alfonso.

RUMOR STARTS BARCELONA

It is Thought to Have Had its Source in the Late Bomb Explosions at Barcelona, in Which a Woman Was Killed and a Child Injured.

Madrid, Feb. 19.—There is no truth in the report current in Paris that King Alfonso had been assassinated.

The rumor probably was an outgrowth of the bomb explosions at Barcelona Monday, which now appear to have been the work of anarchists.

In addition to killing one woman and dangerously wounding a child, the explosion caused much damage to the buildings in the vicinity.

The precise object of the outrages has not yet been made clear, but it is interesting to note that the actions of the parliamentary opposition recently united in a request to the government to restore the constitutional guarantees in Barcelona declaring that normal conditions prevailed there.

King Alfonso is at present at Seville.

FLOODS CONTINUE.

Many Rivers in Southern Indiana, Are Still Rising.

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 19.—Reports from points in Southern Indiana are that floods continue throughout that part of the state. The weaher has turned clear and cold which will check the rapid rise in streams, but the water is not yet at a standstill.

At Petersburg the White and Patoka rivers are higher than since 1875 and thousands of acres of wheat lands are submerged. Schools have closed and trains have ceased running on several roads. Hundreds of men are repairing washouts. The town has had no mail or train service since Friday. At Terre Haute the Wabash is 17½ feet and is rising.

ASSEMBLYMAN ATTACKED.

Said He Was Set Upon by Members of Western Miners' Federation.

Goldfield, Nev., Feb. 19.—Thomas Tighe, an assemblyman, from this county, was set upon by three members of the Western Federation of Miners and in the struggle that followed was badly cut about the face.

He fought off his assailants with his revolver which he used as a club, the miners getting the worst of the encounter.

The offense charged to Tighe was that he had supported the state police bill in the special session of the legislature recently closed.

$100,000 Damage from Explosions.

Camden, N. J., Feb. 19.—Following a series of explosions in which several workmen were injured, fire Monday afternoon damaged the varnish and paint plant of the N. E. Graves company at Twelfth and Penn streets, this city. Eight dwellings adjoining were almost entirely destroyed. Several firemen were slightly injured by exploding benzine. The loss is estimated at $100,000.

Final Consideration Entered On.

Washington, Feb. 19.—The final stages of the passage of the omnibus legislative and judicial appropriation bill were entered upon in the house of representatives Monday when that measure was taken up for consideration. Mr. Mann, of Arkansas, continued his policy of attacking all increases in salaries and they were accordingly rejected on points of order made by him.

Mail Sack Kills Man.

Dawson, Ga., Feb. 19.—Churchwell, a Seaboard merchant and postmaster at Weston, 10 miles above here on the Seaboard, was struck by a passenger engine at noon Monday. It is thought Churchwell was struck by this and thrown under the train. One of his legs was cut off, the other broken and one arm broken. He died as a result of the injuries.

FATAL END TO QUARREL.

Man Followed Another Around World To Have Revenge.

New York, Feb. 19.—John Scitender is dead and Rossi Morani is in the hospital dying as the result of an enmity which began in Italy fifteen years ago. At that time both men were suitors for the hand of the same girl. Morani married her and Scitender threatened that he would kill him if he had to follow him around the world to find the opportunity. Morani came to America with his bride and has lived in Brooklyn ever since.

Monday night the two men met on the street in Brooklyn for the first time since the threat was made. Scitender drew a razor and without a word slashed Morani about the head and shoulders.

The men grappled and rolled about on the sidewalk until Morani was able to draw a revolver with which he shot his enemy. Scitender died half an hour later, and Morani will not recover from his wounds.

BUYERS CROWD NEW YORK.

Will Spend $100,000,000 in the Next Few Weeks.

New York, Feb. 19.—The steady inflow of buyers from the west and the south, which began a week or more ago, is constantly increasing and day by day hundreds more are added to the already large army of them in New York.

It is now estimated that there are nearly five thousand of them in New York, each one with orders for large quantities of goods of every description for the spring and summer trade. In almost every case the buyers are enthusiastic over the prospects of business for the future. They say that the financial depression of last fall has passed away, and that there are nothing but good times in sight.

It is estimated that these buyers will spend more than $100,000,000 for goods during the next few weeks.

DR. GILL ANNOUNCES PLAN.

New Move To Be Made in Crusade for Universal Peace.

Stanford, Conn., Feb. 19.—A new move in the crusade for universal peace was made here Tuesday when Mr. Wilson L. Gill, president of the American Patriotic league, announced a plan to establish correspondence between children of the public schools of the United States and children of the public schools in other countries, with the object of producing a better acquaintance between the people of the earth. Such acquaintances, it is believed, would in the future be of value in preventing international disputes. It is proposed to begin with correspondence between school children of this city and pupils of the normal college at Tokyo, Japan.

Dr. Gill says that a number of prominent men, both Americans and foreigners, have approved the plan.

J. M. Brown May Enter Race.

Atlanta, Feb. 19—For several days past rumors have been rife around the capitol that former Railroad Commissioner Joseph M. Brown would get into the race for governor before the coming primary, and also what seems more probable, that he would make the race for railroad commissioner. Mr. Brown has given out no statement of his intentions as to either proposition, but his friends insist that he has had them both under serious consideration, and that there is a probability of his being heard from at an early date.

Gave Bail of $2,500.

New York, Feb. 19.—Foster M. Voorhees, former governor of New Jersey, and Frank G. Gordon, of Philadelphia, who were indicted by the grand jury on charges of perjury, have surrendered to the district attorney. They were arraigned before Justice Dowling in the supreme court and gave bail in the sum of $1,250 each.

Master Printers Meet.

New Orleans, Feb. 19.—The twenty-fourth annual convention of the Master Printers and Typothetae Association of the United States and Canada opened here Monday afternoon with about two hundred delegates present.

MINERS ARE RESCUED

Were Entombed In Mid-Valley Colliery, Pa.

ONE OF THEM LOST HIS LIFE

After Being Buried for Several Hours Twenty-Seven Men Are Finally Rescued from the Mine by Their Comrades.

Shamokin, Pa., Feb. 19.—All but one of the twenty-eight men and boys who were entombed Monday in the Mid-Valley colliery were rescued Tuesday morning.

Frank Orloskie, a miner of Mid-Valley, fell down a chute after the accident and was killed.

When the rescuing party penetrated to the entombed men it was found that the men had dug for a great distance through the fall of coal.

There were but few persons at the entrance to the drift when the rescued men reached the surface.

The men quickly made their way to their homes showing no bad effect of their experience.

TERRORISTS LEAVING FINLAND.

Recent Appointment Caused Excitement Among Them.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 19.—The appointment of General Von Boeckman to be governor of Finland has produced much excitement among the revolutionists and terrorists who in the past have found Finland a convenient base of operations for plots of all kinds.

They are now leaving in great numbers, most of them going to Sweden. This clearing Finland of plotters will greatly facilitate the work of the Russian police in guarding the lives of prominent personages in St. Petersburg.

Practically all the assassinations of the past year have been committed by terrorists who came direct from Finland the day they committed the crime a method which permitted them to escape police observation.

IN CRITICAL CONDITION.

Senator Latimer, of South Carolina, Undergoes Operation.

Washington, Feb. 19.—Senator Latimer, of South Carolina, was operated upon at Providence hospital here Monday for what is known as a twist of the bowels, and is in a critical condition.

He has been ill for several days and his malady, a dangerous one, became so serious that he was sent to the hospital and all plans made for an immediate operation.

This was performed Monday morning and at its conclusion it was announced that while hope was felt for his recovery, the outcome was by no means certain.

FATAL ACCIDENTS TO TWO.

One Man Killed by Train, Another by His Own Gun.

Birmingham, Ala., Feb. 19.—Julius Levsey, aged twenty-three, attempted to board a Southern railway switch engine Monday morning in East Birmingham and fell in front of it, receiving injuries which caused death in a few minutes.

B. L. Dunn, a collector for an Ensley Furniture store, was shot and killed Tuesday morning at Wylam, a mining camp a few miles away. Dunn had a double barreled shotgun with him, and as he got into his buggy the gun was accidentally discharged.

Edison's Secretary Suicides.

West Orange, N. J., Feb. 19.—J. F. Randolph, treasurer of the Edison Manufacturing company, of which Thomas A. Edison is president, committed suicide Monday in the cellar of his residence on New Valley way, by shooting himself in the head. It is believed that Mr. Randolph was temporarily insane, as neither in his home nor his family affairs was there any known reason for his act.

ROAD WORK BEING EXTENDED IN WEST

Supervisor Emerson and His Force Are Doing Some Fine Work.

THE DISTANCE IS SHORTENED

In Addition to Having Better Road, the Distance Between Newberry and Gainesville Will be Shortened by More Than a Mile.

Supervisor J. R. Emerson, who has been engaged on the construction of good roads in Alachua county for the past few months, is making an excellent showing of the work as is now doing west of the city, on the way to Newberry.

The reporter, together with Commissioner C. C. Pedrick and Supervisor Emerson, made a trip over the new road a day or two ago, and the new work is showing up well.

A right-of-way has been surveyed and cut from a point just west of Hogtown Creek to Tioga, which not only makes a better road, but lessens the distance a little more than a mile between the creek and Tioga. The avenue is a broad one, and the road when completed will prove one of the best in this section of the State.

Mr. Emerson has a good force employed and is making fine progress. Sections of the road have already been clayed, while the material in other sections only needs to be graded and rounded up, the consistency being sufficient to keep the road in good condition.

Mr. Emerson expects in a few months to finish the road to Tioga, when work towards Newberry will be taken up. This will give the traveling public a good road all the way from Gainesville to Newberry, a distance of seventeen miles.

Commissioner Pedrick and Surveyor Taylor spent Monday on the extension of the road, and the latter is now engaged in making a survey, or running a new sectional line.

THE HYACINTH PEST.

The Canal Opening Into Lake Santa Fe Has Been Cleared Again.

With the hyacinths removed from the canals connecting the lakes between Waldo and Melrose, and the inauguration of steamer service between these points again, matters will present an old-time appearance once more. The coming of the boat, both here and at Melrose, will be greeted with pleasure by the people. For some time past the good people at the other end of Lake Santa Fe have been practically "bottled up" so far as communication of commercial source is concerned, the pest known as the water hyacinth becoming so numerous in the canals as to render the operation of the steamer a difficult task. The new steamer being constructed at Melrose is said to be nearing completion, when it will be placed into regular service.—Waldo News.

A Baby

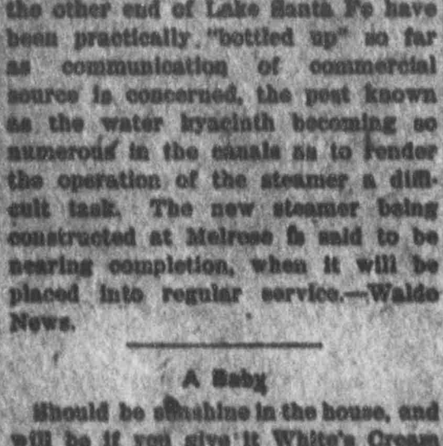
This remedy is becoming the permanent fixture of all households. A mother with children can't get along without a bottle of White's Cream Vermifuge in the house. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

The Circuit Court.

From Tuesday's Daily Sun:

The special term of the Circuit Court for the Eighth Judicial Circuit, over which Hon. J. T. Wills presides, was called to order at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon, and after hearing a few arguments and passing upon a few cases, the court adjourned until 9 o'clock this morning.

This special term was called for the purpose of clearing the civil docket.



COULD NOT WALK FOR FOUR MONTHS

Mass of Itching, Burning Humor on Ankles—Feet Fearfully Swollen—Opiates Alone Brought Sleep—Many Treatments Failed but

TORTURES OF ECZEMA YIELDED TO CUTICURA

"Cuticura Remedies are all you claim them to be. I had eczema for over two years. I had two physicians, but they only gave me relief for a short time and I cannot enumerate the ointments and lotions I used to no purpose. My ankles were one mass of sores. The itching and burning were so intense that I could not sleep. I could not walk for nearly four months. One day my husband said I had better try the Cuticura Remedies. After using them three times, I got the best night's rest in months unless I took an opiate. I used one set of Cuticura Soap, Cuticura Ointment, and Cuticura Resolvent Pills, and my ankles healed in a short time. It is now a year since I used Cuticura, and there has been no return of the eczema.

"I had a small lump in the corner of my eye for over a year which was very painful and got larger all the time. I thought I would try Cuticura Soap and Ointment on it, and now it is gone. I am seventy-three years old and have lived on the farm I now occupy for twenty-seven years. Cuticura Remedies are the safest and most reliable I have ever used for all skin humors. Mrs. David Brown, Locke, Crawford Co., Ark., May 18 and July 13, 1907."

DISFIGURED

For Life is the Despairing Cry of Thousands

Of skin-tortured and disfigured victims of humors, eczemas, tetters, and rashes, who have tried and found wanting many remedies, and who have lost faith in all. To such Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Pills appeal with irresistible force. They are absolutely pure, sweet, gentle, and wholesome. MISS CANNON ENTERTAINS.

Friends Enjoy Delightful Valentine Chafing Dish Party.

Miss Annie Cannon entertained Friday night at a delightful Valentine chafing dish party, at the home of her parents. About six couples were present, the function being in honor of the Senior Society of the University.

The place cards and details were all in red hearts and Valentine suggestions. A delicious supper was served in the dining-room, where the table had for its center-piece a lovely design in fruit. The hostess presided over the chafing dish at the head of the table, where she prepared the most delicious creamed chicken. Before and after supper games were played, all appropriate for a Valentine entertainment. Every detail was very clever and original in its arrangement, and all voted Miss Cannon a most charming hostess.

Tuesday Morning's Marriage.

A marriage was solemnized in the office of County Judge Mason Tuesday morning, the ceremony being performed by the dignified Judge.

The contracting parties were Joseph M. Manning, a well-known young man of Jacksonville, and Miss Ella Parrish.

The happy young couple received the congratulations and best wishes of those present, after which they left on a short honeymoon.

Simple Remedy for La Grippe.

La grippe coughs are dangerous as they frequently develop into pneumonia. Foley's Honey and Tar not only stops the cough but heals and strengthens the lungs so that no serious results need be feared. Successful Fox Hunt.

Sheriff Pennell and Arch Jackson, the veteran fox hunters, participated in a successful hunt a short distance east of the city Monday night, capturing a very fine animal, after an exciting chase.

These gentlemen enjoy the sport very much, and frequently invite a number of their friends.

Don't think that piles can't be cured. Thousands of obstinate cases have been cured by Doan's Ointment. 50 cents at any drug store.

MEMORIAL SERVICE.

W. C. T. U. Honors Memory of Miss Frances E. Willard.

The Sun is indebted to Mrs. Elizabeth Smith for the following excellent report of the last meeting of the W. C. T. U.:

The Frances E. Willard Memorial Service which was held at the W. C. T. U. rooms Monday was well attended, the rooms being crowded to their utmost capacity. Over her picture, which hung on the wall, were the last words of this wonderful woman: "How beautiful it is to be with God," and as one looked at the sweet womanly face the thought came, and how fitting that such as she should be in His holy presence. The program was very interesting and consisted of readings from her life and work, and appropriate music. The meeting opened with the hymn, "Close to Thee," followed with prayer by Mrs. Higden, and closed with prayer by Mrs. J. E. Futch and the W. C. T. U. hymn, "How Gentle God Commands." Altogether, it was a sweet and sacred hour, and the usefulness of her presence seemed to rest upon all present. It is ten years since she was taken into the heavenly Kingdom, but she still lives in the hearts of those who loved her as truly as when she walked with us in life's often rugged pathway. Quite a number present had had the privilege of meeting Miss Willard personally, and each one spoke of her sweet, magnetic manner that won all hearts. A Miss Alice Hercur of Washington, D. C., who was present, gave a very pleasant talk. She was well acquainted with Miss Willard, having entertained her at her home. She spoke of her many grand qualities and of her silvery voice that was like sweetest music when she spoke. May we women of America always keep the name of this noble woman ever before us and try in our humble way to carry out the work she began.—By order of the PRESIDENT.

A Serious Runaway.

Those on the square Sunday afternoon were furnished considerable excitement when the horse of J. B. Brooks became suddenly frightened and made a dash. The animal was on East Main street N., in the vicinity of Holy Trinity church, when he became agitated over the presence of a street roller. Mr. Brooks was nervy, however, and held the animal down for a block, but when on the corner of East Main and East Liberty the horse made a sudden turn, throwing the occupant of the buggy out. Fortunately he landed on his hands, being only slightly injured.

The horse made a dash around the corner and down West Main street S., and was stopped before damage was done to the buggy.

Friends of Mr. Brooks congratulate him that the injuries were no worse.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury,

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surface. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and it is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surface of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

Sold by druggists. Price, 75c. per bottle.

J. A. King's Misfortune.

Capt. J. A. King of Orange Heights was in the city on business Tuesday.

Mr. King's friends will regret to learn of his misfortune, one of his stills having been consumed by fire a few nights ago. Fortunately, however, there were no products in the immediate vicinity, which probably saved a much larger loss.

Mr. King states that the farmers of the East End are now busy with their crop stands, and from present indications there will be the largest acreage of diversified crops seen in that section of the county for many years.

Foley's Honey and Tar cures the most obstinate coughs and expels the cold from the system as it is wholly laxative. It is guaranteed. The genuine is in the yellow package.—J. W. McCollum & Co.

A NEGRO CREMATED AT HIGH SPRINGS

Early Sunday Morning Fire Destroyed Prisoner and Jail.

MUCH EXCITEMENT PREVAILED

Negro, George Perkins, Was Imprisoned On a Charge of Stealing a Pair of Trousers, and It is Believed He Attempted to Burn Way Out.

From Wednesday's Daily Sun:

High Springs was the scene of a conflagration at an early hour Sunday morning, which resulted in the loss of the life of George Perkins, a negro, and the complete destruction of the town jail.

Perkins, who was the only prisoner in the jail, it is said was cremated almost beyond recognition. He had been placed in prison Saturday night, charged with the larceny of a pair of trousers from another negro, and about 4 o'clock the following morning Night Officer Bell, who made the arrest, discovered that the jail was in flames, but too late to save the building. The flames were so intensively hot that it was impossible to rescue the unfortunate victim confined in the jail, and his screams of agony could be heard above the roar of the flames, which shot high into the air, luminating the streets for blocks.

A large crowd was attracted to the scene, and after it was learned that Perkins was being roasted alive much excitement prevailed.

The origin of the fire is not definitely known, but it is the general opinion that the negro, in order to effect his escape, ignited the building, hoping to burn his way to freedom before he was discovered.

A large number of people lingered around the jail after the building had been destroyed, viewing the body of the negro—or at least what was left of it.

Had the fire been discovered in time, it might have been possible to have extinguished the flames, even with the inadequate fire-fighting facilities of the town.

Mr. Chapman Will Lecture.

From Wednesday's Daily:

A treat is in store for us on the evening of Tuesday, March 3rd, when an illustrated lecture on the bird life of Florida and the Bahamas will be given by Mr. Frank M. Chapman, the widely-famed ornithologist. Mr. Chapman, as associate cugator in the American Museum of National History, New York, has traveled to many sections in search of material for his various books and lectures on this most interesting subject of bird life, and it will be our rare privilege at this time to hear Mr. Chapman in Gainesville. The lecture will be held at the opera house, under the auspices of the Guild of St. Elizabeth, Holy Trinity church. Tickets 50 cents.

STATE UNIVERSITY NOTES.

Interesting Batch of Happenings at Florida's Educational Institution.

From Wednesday's Daily Sun:

The baseball season has just opened with two games with the Gainesville High School. In both of these the University was successful. The first game resulted in a score of 10 to 1, the second 11 to 4.

The team expects to leave on Thursday for a short trip. While away it will play one game with Rollins and two with Stetson. In these games Earman and Carter will pitch, and D. S. Bryan catch.

The uniform has been changed, the men now wearing white with blue trimmings. The uniform is very attractive.

The athletic committee is making arrangements for military and athletic contests, to take place at some time in the near future. A preliminary contest will come off on George Washington's Birthday, to which the public is cordially invited. The feature of the afternoon's sports will probably be the "paper chase."

Much of the woodwork about the grounds is receiving a fresh coat of paint. A large flag-pole, about a hundred feet in height, will be erected in a day or two, and a barn is being built on the cottage farm. The work on this is being done by the students. The brick foundation is being laid by a Gainesville boy—C. M. Fisher.

The examinations are but recently over. The grades made by the students were on the whole good. As a relaxation for the students after the strenuous exertions consequent upon examinations, several entertainments have been held. Three of the city churches gave Valentine parties which were greatly enjoyed by the students attending.

Prof. and Mrs. Scott leave in a day or two to attend the Tampa Fair. Short visits to the Fair have been made by students Coe, Drane, Lightfoot and J. S. Shands.

Prof. Rolfs is visiting points in South Florida and on the East Coast on station business. Prof. Fawcett is at Clearwater continuing his experiments on citrus plants. Prof. Winters has just returned from Sanford, where he has several experiments well under way on celery.

Every Thursday afternoon many of the students gather in President Sledd's office to hear a short address. Last Thursday Dr. Sledd discussed "The Menace of Wealth." Next Thursday he will by request speak on "Christian Science." Dr. Sledd preached last Sunday night at the Methodist church.

The Tuesday morning "talk" was made this week by Dr. Benton, his subject being "Engineering as a Profession." A recent talk of great interest was by Lieut. Ball on "Stonewall Jackson, the Ideal Soldier." Next week the talk will be by Prof. Scott. These exercises are open to the public, who are most cordially invited to attend. The talk begins at five minutes past eight.

Chapel exercises this week are being conducted by Dr. Farr.

The Athenaeum Club is still flourishing. The last paper, entitled "Land Tenure in Georgia," was read by Dr. Banks. It was an able presentation of conditions in the South, and especially in Georgia.

A PLEASANT EVENING SURPRISE.

From Wednesday's Daily:

Not least among the enjoyable occasions of the season, and rivaling the best, as evidenced by the report of those who constituted the surprise party given Mrs. P. H. Rolfs, at her home, 510 West Main street, in honor of her birthday, Monday evening, has proved to be the one given her by the members of the Experiment Station staff. Many came, and many went away feeling that their hostess is fully equal to all occasions where the pleasure of her guests is uppermost in her thoughts.

The surprise party, planning beforehand, had thoughtfully prepared several interesting contests for the evening. Mrs. Rolfs proved to be the successful one in the chief contest, winning a beautiful China sugar bowl and creamer. Other prizes were won by exhibit of skill, but let us here mention the delicious refreshments that were served—ice cream, saucers heaping full; cake, "like mother used to bake;" and many other good things to eat.

After declaring one and all that the evening had been a most pleasant one, and one to be remembered, the guests bade their hostess adieu and sought recluse of twinkling stars and the radiance of Luna in her silvery shadows.

LETTER TO DR. WATSON PORTER, Gainesville, Florida.

Dear Sir: A new word has come into use in paint; it is strong. Strong paint is paint as strong as paint can be. Weak paint is paint not so strong.

If one paint takes 10 gallons to do a job and another 15, the 10-gallon paint is the strongest.

If one paint wears 10 years, and another 5, the 10-year paint is the stronger.

The strongest paint is the one that takes least gallons and wears longest.

But do such differences exist? Yes and greater. Devoe is the strongest of all. A job that takes 10 gallons Devoe takes more than 20 of some. And a job of Devoe wears several times as long as a job of some paints.

O. R. Perry, East 8th street, Erie, Pa., painted two houses same size; same time; with two paints same price; took 3 gallons Devoe to 4 of the other; and in three years Devoe was the better looking job.

There are strong and weak paints; we all want the strongest; paint can't be too strong. Yours truly,

46 F. W. DEVOE & CO.

P. S.: The S. J. Thomas Co. sell our paint.

Card of Thanks.

A LONG JOURNEY.

J. F. Burnett Summoned Over 2,000 Miles to Give His Testimony.

From Wednesday's Daily Sun:

J. Fletcher Burnett left yesterday on a long journey, having for his destination Miles City, Montana.

This is an important trip, Mr. Burnett having been summoned as a witness in an important murder case which he was unfortunate enough to witness in Miles City a few months ago, in which an Italian is charged with having stabbed to death another man.

Mr. Burnett's testimony in this case will be of great importance, since he has been summoned to travel a distance of more than 2,000 miles.

Delightful Valentine Party.

From Wednesday's Daily:

In some manner The Sun reporter overlooked the Valentine party given by the Young People's Society of the First Presbyterian church at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Matheson, East Union street, Friday evening. This was probably due to the fact that a half-dozen or more entertainments of a social nature transpired the same evening, and it is hoped this explanation will prove satisfactory.

This proved to be one of the most largely-attended as well as most enjoyable functions of its kind for some time. A large number of the young folks were present. And the evening was passed in music and games, handsome and appropriate Valentine souvenirs having been distributed during the evening.

Delightful refreshments of sandwiches and hot chocolate were served, and at a late hour the guests dispersed, with assurances of highest appreciation for the hospitality extended by the Matheson household.

It is mean to charge Congressmen with duplicity. They are at least sure to be frank—on their envelopes.

It must be a perplexing situation to the Republican store-keeper who wants to lay in a sufficient supply of the right brand of campaign button.

Another Georgia editor has migrated to Gotham. It seems rather a hard matter to make prolonged draughts and editors both stay in the Cracker State.

"Prohibition took a great many people's breath away," says The Atlanta Georgian. A neat epigrammatic obituary to the memory of departed spirits.

City politics are being agitated to some extent now, but not so much as at this time last year. There will be "something doing" early in March, however.

Presidential messages and hypothetical questions are both reaching the length that they will have to be issued serially and bound separately for the convenience of the reading clerk.

If the Panama canal continues to paid the United States terasury, we may be reduced to the necessity of getting up strawberry festivities and hot suppers to keep the dirt flying in the diggin's.

This remark of Governor Hughes that he will not again stand for Governor of New York ought to call forth a similar statement from Mr. Taft that he does not care about another term as Secretary of War.

"Mr. Bryan is not to blame," says an editorial headline in The Norfolk Landmark. And yet, if it were not for Mr. Bryan to blame, the blame department of a lot of newspapers would have to go entirely out of business.

The Sun trusts that the Alachua County Democratic Executive Committee will not inaugurate the county campaign until the middle of April. Thirty days of activity is sufficient for the first primary, especially as it occurs during the farmer's busy season.

Hon. E. S. Matthews, editor of The Starke Telegraph and Speaker of the Florida House of Representatives, is again a candidate for the Legislature. There was never a more popular presiding officer of the House or a more faithful representative of his people than 'Gene Matthews, and the people of Bradford county will no doubt return him to the important post of duty to which they have for two consecutive terms assigned him.

Hon. Arthur T. Williams, the new chairman of the State Democratic Executive Committee, occupied the same position prior to Col. D. U. Fletcher's election, and filled the same to the entire satisfaction of both factions of the party. Like the lamented Senator Stephen R. Mallory, Arthur T. Williams is without a blemish either as to his political or private life. Few men in the State are so highly esteemed by their fellow men.

KENTUCKY'S DEADLOCK.

The Chicago Record-Herald analyzes the Senatorial deadlock in the Blue Grass State as follows:

"Politics in Kentucky never becomes a mild and harmless diversion. Since the late election gave to the people of the Blue Grass State a Republican executive—the third since 1865, if Taylor be counted as a Republican Governor—the Democrats, who know that the party needs every Senatorial vote it can muster in Washington, have been further stirred by the spectacular Senatorial contest which may result in giving William O. Bradley, the first Republican Governor after the war—he served as such from 1895 to 1899— a still higher distinction—the United States Senatorship. His friends contend that if they sit tight and the sextet of Democrats who have bolted Beckham remain faithful in their unfaith, the chances are that a Republican will win the honor, and William O'Connell Bradley, who has received the Republican nomination four times, feels that since he suffered defeat with his party he should be the one to share its success.

"With a majority of eight on a joint ballot, the revolt of six Democrats against former Governor J. C. W. Beckham, the nominee of the Democratic primaries held in 1906, may mean Democratic defeat, since even the intercession of William J. Bryan in behalf of Beckham seems to have left the six disaffected ones as determined in their opposition as they were before his coming.

"The six Democratic legislators who are voting against the nominee of the party are equally divided between the house and Senate. Charlton, McNutt and Campbell are State Senators, and McKnight, Lillard and Mueller are members of the Lower House. The votes which Governor Beckham needs to insure his election they have given to McCreary and Blackburn, who now represent the State in the United States Senate. Naturally their course is attracting some attention, and the comments passed are not of the gentlest kind. Bolter and sorehead are the least offensive terms applied to them. They are accused of representing the liquor interests, who, Beckham's friends assert, hold the former Governor responsible for the enforcement of the Sunday laws. He is to be punished for closing the saloon on Sunday.

"His opponents, on the other hand, declare that the election of Beckham at the State primary was a snap one, being called a year ahead of time; that the primaries were fraudulent; that the State Senators chosen in 1905 should not be held by the instructions of a 1906 primary, and that the defeat of Mr. Hager, the Democratic candidate for Governor, and Beckham's man, showed that the State was tired of the man, under whose administration, Colonel Watterson says, Kentucky 'became the worst governed State in the Union.'

"Louisville seems to be the center of the opposition to former Governor Beckham. The only Democratic representative elected from Jefferson county, in which that city is located, announced when he was a candidate that he would not vote for Beckham, and his announcement met signal reward. The Louisville Courier-Journal is bitter in its opposition, and that in Kentucky the game of statecraft has lost none of its tumultuous and picturesque qualities is shown in a flamboyant defiance which it recently hurled in the teeth of the Beckham followers:

"'Naturally The Courier-Journal has not been able to fall down and grovel at the feet of power at Frankfort. The awful majesty of Beckham, the awe-inspiring puissance of Haly, the spectacular performance of a Brown, Jones and Robinson of the Hell-Roaring Horse have neither dazzled nor terrorized. * * * Soon or late those who profited by the murder of Goebel, and who make at once a merit and a profit by trafficking with his murderers, will stand revealed in their own deformity and will come to their true deserts. * * * As for The Courier-Journal, it can wait, but it waits with a gatling gun in easy reach and a legion of Kentucky Democrats by its side, 40,000 strong, who have sworn to the Lord of Hosts that they will never march under a banner inscribed Beckham, Haly, Brown & Co., office brokers and bucket-shop gamblers, using Democracy as a cloak for perfidy and pharisaism with the enemy and traitors to the cause.'

"Eight years ago John Crepps Wickliffe Beckham, a Kentuckyian born and bred, who had taught school, practiced law and served in the Kentucky Legislature as member and speaker, was a youthful politician, who, through the tragic death of Governor Goebel, became the Governor of a great commonwealth. He has served in that capacity two terms, and during his regime showed a talent for statecraft that few suspected he possessed. Tactful and magnetic, his personality has won his friends who now declare him the victim of persecution and party disloyalty. On the other hand, many believe that he has neglected his duty to the State in building up a political machine through which he hoped to reach the goal of his ambition—the Senate. Blackburn and McCreary, two old Democratic war horses, have been sacrificed to further this ambition, and their friends are loud in his denunciation.

"William O'Connell Bradley, his Republican opponent, who receives every Republican vote cast in the joint assembly, is the man whom Goebel succeeded. In a State long considered hopelessly Democratic he accepted nominations from his party, having been a candidate for Congress, for Vice-President, for Senator and for Governor. Defeated many times, he at last won the Governorship in 1895, and during his term of office saw a Republican Senator seat from Kentucky. While not so youthful a man as Beckham, he is still young, having been born March 16, 1847."

REPUBLICANS DIVIDING.

The outlook seems quite fair for the long-expected split in the Republican party. This thing has been impending ever since President Roosevelt took the helm and began on the policy of regeneration and reform that was not at all to the liking of many of the long established leaders of the party. Radical as some of the preachings of the Democratic party seemed in 1896, they were radical simply because they were honest and meant what has since come to be known as the "square deal" and is accepted as a Roosevelt if not a Republican principle. President Roosevelt wanted more of the square deal and more regeneration and honesty, and to get them he had to appropriate doctrines that had been ten tenets of the Democratic party. His search for honesty was rash, and even headlong, considering the practices and training of many of the leaders he had to deal with, and there has arisen a schism in the party that promises to grow more pronounced. The split is primarily in Ohio, and the charge has been made that the President has used Federal patronage in that State to further the candidacy of Secretary Taft. Perhaps he has to some extent. Perhaps he has not done so in nearly such a pronounced fashion as many of his Republican enemies and Republican predecessors. What the exact facts are it is hardly worth while discussing. The one fact remaining is that Senator Foraker arose in the Senate and attacked the President violently, charging him with improper political methods. Such a charge was entertaining, coming from the senior Senator from Ohio. But it was cheered, showing the temper of the Senate where President Roosevelt is concerned. A split of the President and the Senate at this juncture means certainly a halving split of the party. It is a cheerful thing to contemplate for the present minority, and there is little doubt, if the Democratic party will get together and stay together, they will have much more than a fighting chance of carrying the next National election.

THE CHOICE.

The next President of the United States in all probability will be either Taft, Hughes or Bryan, says The Wall Street Journal. If Taft or Hughes is not nominated, and the candidacy of Bryan appears too menacing, then there might be a stampede of the Republican Convention for Roosevelt.

There appears to be no question as to Bryan's nomination by the Democratic convention, and it is no secret that he regards his chances of election as exceedingly bright.

Taft's complete victory in Ohio makes him the leading candidate for the Republican nomination. He looks more than ever a winner.

Every speech that Hughes makes, however, increases his strength. He is a growing man.

There is nothing in this outlook that is pleasing to the "reactionary." One of these four men may seem to him worse than the others, but they are stamped with varying degrees of "radicalism." If the Bourbon element in Wall Street were entitled to choose among these four "evils," it is safe to say that they would take Hughes or Taft before Bryan or Roosevelt.

REVISING IT HIGHER.

The Republican plan for a tariff commission is not receiving enthusiastic commendation from those who really desire tariff reform, and even the standpatters fight shy of it until "after election." But perhaps it is only put forward to fool the people again into the belief that the Republicans will revise the tariff, which they never intend to do, except to revise it higher. They are already talking of a maximum and minimum tariff, which probably means that the present high rates are to be the minimum, and the maximum rates will be from 20 to 50 per cent higher. That would be reforming the tariff according to "the principle of protection," and would help the trusts to tide over Republican hard times. It is evident that Republican tariff revision promises are made to be broken, and that those who desire tariff reform must ally themselves with the Democratic party, for only a Democratic Congress will enact real tariff revision, and only a Democratic President will sign such a bill.

The news has been received in Chicago from Washington by Frederick W. Upham, the chairman of the Chicago committee to arrange for the Republican National Committee, that President Roosevelt may attend the convention. He also reported that the convention may be prolonged into two weeks. This indicates that a deadlock is expected and a fight to a finish between the two factions of the Republican party. It would be a most extraordinary proceeding for the President of the United States to attend a partisan convention, and even to propose it shows the desperate struggle that is impending. As both factions are taking advantage of every crook and turn that will influence a single delegate, matters may come to such a pass that a split may occur and two candidates be nominated, and who could lead the Roosevelt faction but the President himself, with any show of success.

There will be a convention of the music teachers of the State of Florida at St. Augustine on February 25, 26, 27, 1908. This convention will be held under the auspices of the Saint Cecilia Club of St. Augustine for the purpose of organizing a permanent State Music Teachers' Association. Some fine programs will be given by the best musical talent in the State. All teachers and music lovers are invited to attend. Those desiring further information can obtain the same by addressing the chairman of the committee on State Organizations, Mrs. Noel Wallace Mier, No. 19 Cordova street, St. Augustine, Fla.

Every encouragement possible should be given the promotion of the proposed sanitarium to be established in Gainesville. The sanitarium will be conducted upon the same plan as the great Battle Creek resort, and would be the very best advertisement for this city. The preliminary organization is in the hands of our leading business and professional men, and it is to be hoped that the permanent organization will soon be effected, the site selected and work commenced upon the building. Such a result can only be accomplished, however, by united action upon the part of our people.

The Sun has exercised every effort to cause candidates for county offices to delay their newspaper announcements until the meeting of the County Democratic Executive Committee, but our efforts have been in vain, and we are forced to make a rate for such announcements, which is as follows: $10 for nine lines or less from now until May 19th, the date of the first primary; from April 1st to May 19th, $5—matter to be inserted once each week in both the daily and semi-weekly editions. The cash must accompany all announcements.

If you desire to vote at the city election on April 14th you must pay your poll tax on or before Saturday, March 14th.

OUR WASHINGTON NEWS LETTER

The Present a Great Opportunity for Democratic Success.

QUARREL OF THE REPUBLICANS

Is Most Bitter in History of Party. Probability of Passage of Another Burdensome Pension Bill—Anti-Bryan Democrats.

Washington, D. C. Feb. 19.—"If ever there was an opportunity for Democratic victory this is it," said a prominent Democratic member of the Senate today. "Why, the Republicans are fighting like the famous Kilkenny cats. The President and Taft are determined that their policies shall triumph, regardless of the welfare of the party, and the opposition would rather split the party wide open than endure another four years of Rooseveltism, whether it is administered by Teddy himself or by Taft. The latest plan of the anti-Roosevelt crowd is to carry the Republican National Convention with 'rotten borough' delegations from the South which can be counted on to vote against Taft and for such other candidate as will pay the highest price. These delegations are almost entirely composed of negroes who will sell out at the drop of the hat, but there is no danger of their selling to the Taft people, because the Taft crowd has not got the price. Well, we on this side can look on with entire equanimity. I hope, indeed, that they will succeed, for the American people will not stand for that kind of politics, and it will mean the election of Bryan, surer than fate."

Senator Stone of Missouri, talking of the professed intention of the Democrats to revise the tariff, said today: "Did you notice how Mr. Cannon treated those members of the National Manufacturers' Association who came to Washington to ask Congress to appoint a tariff commission? They came at the instance of Senator Beveridge. They were all Republicans who have enjoyed the benefits of protection until they have got enough, and they want a little bit of the tariff wall shaved off. And yet Cannon treated them with contempt. Now, what have we to expect if the Republicans win the next election? Cannon will be Speaker again, and he will be just as much of the standpatter as he is today. The people have got to elect a Democratic President if they want tariff revision, just as they did in 1892. This talk of Republican tariff revision is all a bluff."

Senator Aldrich is driving his financial bill through the Senate with his usual skill. The Democrats are all opposed to it, and many of the Republicans are against it, but they are afraid of Aldrich to a man, and the Democrats, who constitute only one-third of the Upper House, are powerless to do anything without the help of the Republicans. The President has announced that he favors the Aldrich bill, and when Aldrich and the President get together no Republican dares raise his voice in protest.

The anti-Bryan Democrats very nearly executed a neat little coup the other day. They purposed to elect Representative Ryan of Virginia to the chairmanship of the Democratic Congressional Committee. It was a little scheme of Thos. F. Ryan of New York, who is a distant cousin of Representative Ryan. Some of the members of the Senate learned of the game Mr. Ryan of Interborough Railway fame was putting up, however, and blocked it in the eleventh hour.

It looks very much as if the country was going to be burdened with another and more than ever infamous pension bill. This is a bill to pension every widow of every man who served 90 days or longer in the Civil War, and to raise the pensions of all widows from $8 to $12 a month. Speaker Cannon is back of the bill, which will cost the country about $12,000,000 a year in addition to the $151,000,000 it is already spending for pensions, but they say that Mr. Cannon thinks it will help him to gain the Republican Presidential nomination, and as he does not have to pay the bill he considers it cheap at the price. Of course most of the real widows of veterans are dead, that is, women who were the wives of veterans during the war, but this bill gives pensions to all that host of young women, many of them of not too enviable reputations, who have married old soldiers many years their senior in order to secure the old men's pensions after their death.

Mr. Bryan has declared in favor of the guarantee of all deposits in National banks, these to be secured by a sort of insurance fund to be accumulated by a tax on all deposits to be paid into the National treasury. The Democrats in both houses of Congress favor this scheme, and an earnest effort will be made to add it as an amendment to the Aldrich bill, but as the bankers are opposed to it it will probably fail.

The Secretary of War has issued a general order creating a Division of Militia in the War Department. This division will have charge of all the relations of the militia to the regular army, such as joint manoeuvres, etc. It is to be in charge of Colonel E. M. Weaver who is known to many National Guardsmen as the officer who had charge of the joint manoeuvres of the militia and the Coast Defense Artillery last summer. Hitherto, Colonel Weaver has been Assistant Chief of Artillery.

If Democrats quarrel often it takes Republicans to quarrel bitterly. The spectacle of Senator Foraker denouncing the President, of a Republican Representative denouncing Mr. Foraker, and of the President putting the Senator from Ohio in the already overcrowded Ananias Club, are distinctly Republican and are typical of the brotherly love which at present characterizes the Republican party.

Frank Williams, a sixteen-year-old lad, accidentally shot himself while hunting near Bostick last week. He died from the effects of the wounds soon after the accident.

ALACHUA COUNTY IN NORTHERN DISTRICT

Congressman Clark's Bill Has Been Signed By President.

FIRST TERM OF COURT IN MAY

Bill in Full as It Passed Congress and Became a Law—"Get-There" Congressman Scores Another Victory for His People—More Coming.

Some weeks ago The Sun gave the information that Congressman Frank Clark's bill providing for the transfer of Alachua county from the Southern to the Northern District of the United States court and for the holding of regular terms of said court in Gainesville, had passed both houses of Congress. Yesterday information was received that the bill had been signed by President Roosevelt on February 6th, and consequently it is now a law.

Omitting the title and enacting clause, the bill provides—

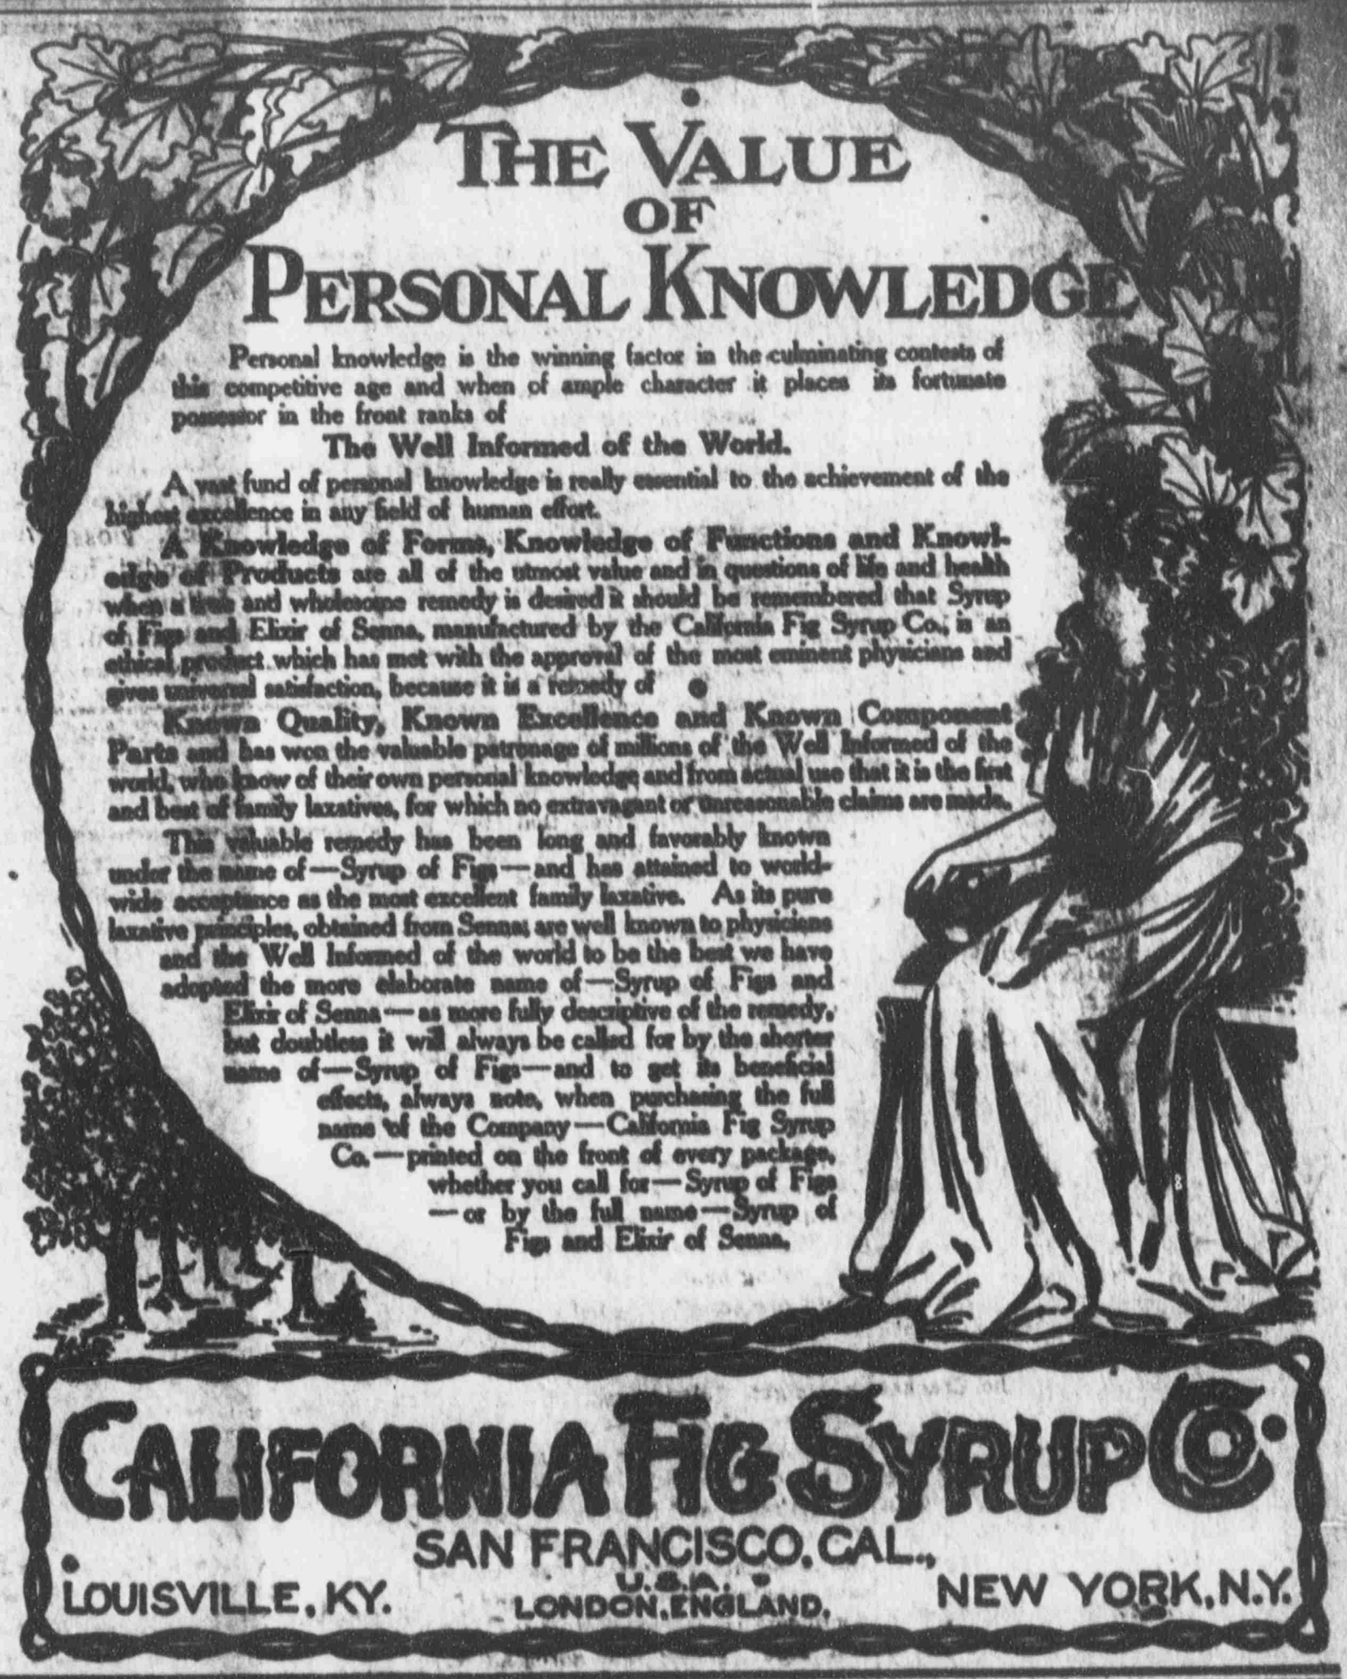
That the county of Alachua, in the State of Florida, which is now in the Southern Judicial District of said State, be, and the same is hereby, transferred to and made a part of the Northern Judicial District of said State.

Sec. 2. That all cases, civil and criminal, which arose in said county of Alachua, and which are now pending in the courts of said Southern Judicial District of Florida, shall remain and be disposed of in said courts, and all persons who have committed offenses against the United States in said county shall be prosecuted and tried as though this act had not been passed.

Sec. 3. That there shall be held at the city of Gainesville, in the said county of Alachua, terms of both circuit and district courts for said northern district of Florida on the first Monday in May and on the first Monday in December of each year.

Sec. 4. That suitable rooms and accommodations shall be furnished for holding said court free of expense to the Government of the United States until such time as a Federal building shall be prepared for that purpose in said city of Gainesville, in the State of Florida.

Approved, February 6, 1908.



THE VALUE OF PERSONAL KNOWLEDGE
Personal knowledge is the winning factor in the culminating contests of this competitive age and when of ample character it places its fortunate possessor in the front ranks of The Well Informed of the World.
A vast fund of personal knowledge is really essential to the achievement of the highest excellence in any field of human effort.
A Knowledge of Forms, Knowledge of Functions and Knowledge of Products are all of the utmost value and in questions of life and health when a true and wholesome remedy is desired it should be remembered that Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., is an ethical product which has met with the approval of the most eminent physicians and gives universal satisfaction, because it is a remedy of Known Quality, Known Excellence and Known Component Parts and has won the valuable patronage of millions of the Well Informed of the world, who know of their own personal knowledge and from actual use that it is the first and best of family laxatives, for which no extravagant or unreasonable claims are made.
This valuable remedy has been long and favorably known under the name of—Syrup of Figs—and has attained to world-wide acceptance as the most excellent family laxative. As its pure laxative principles, obtained from Senna, are well known to physicians and the Well Informed of the world to be the best we have adopted the more elaborate name of—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as more fully descriptive of the remedy, but doubtless it will always be called for by the shorter name of—Syrup of Figs—and to get its beneficial effects, always note, when purchasing the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on the front of every package, whether you call for—Syrup of Figs—or by the full name—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna.

THE CANDIDATES.

Three Democrats Formally Announce for County Offices.

Perry G. Ramsey of Wacahoota formally announces his candidacy for sheriff in today's Sun. Mr. Ramsey was for several years a member of the Board of County Commissioners, voluntarily retiring a few years ago. He discharged his duties in that office faithfully and efficiently, and should he be nominated and elected to the important office of sheriff he would never be found derelict in the discharge of the duties incumbent upon him. He is well qualified for the office and has hosts of friends who will earnestly support his candidacy.

J. F. Townsend announces his candidacy for re-election as County Commissioner from district No. 5. Mr. Townsend has been a faithful and efficient member of the board from that district for a number of years, and should he be re-elected the people will have no cause to regret it.

R. B. Weeks (Uncle Bob) again asks the Democrats of district No. 1 to vote for him as a member of the School Board, and no matter who may oppose him a large number of them will rally to his support. No man in the county manifests a deeper interest in education than he does, and for a number of years his colleagues on the board have shown their confidence in him by successively electing him as their chairman.

SYMPTOMS OF CATARRH

Given by Doctor Who Has Treated Thousands of Cases.

A physician who has made a life work of treating catarrhal troubles gives the following list of symptoms which indicate when catarrhal germs are present in the mucous membrane of the nose, throat, bronchial tubes, or tissues of the lungs:

Offensive breath.	Pain in chest.
Frequent sneezing.	Pain in side.
Dryness of the nose.	Irritable temper.
Pain across the eyes.	Loss of strength.
Discharge from nose at night.	Variable appetite.
Ringing noise in ears.	Shortness of breath.
Hawking to relieve throat.	Low spirits at times.
Deep cough in throat.	Raising of mucous.
A cough.	Difficulty in breathing.
	Pain in vital parts.

If you have any of the above symptoms, begin the use of Hyomei at once. It is the only treatment for catarrh sold by J. W. McCollum & Co. under an absolute guarantee to refund the money unless it cures.

The price of a complete outfit is but $1 if it cures, nothing if it fails.

BIBLE CONFERENCE OPENS IN MARCH

March 22 is Day Set for Beginning of These Services.

PROMINENT SPEAKERS SECURED

The Conference Will Be Held Several Weeks Later Than Usual, But Indications Are That It Will Be a Successful One—The Chautauqua.

It is gratifying information to the people of Gainesville, the State of Florida and the country at large to learn that, following the session of the Florida Winter Chautauqua, which will convene in this city from Monday, March 2, to Sunday, March 15, will be held the annual Florida Winter Bible Conference, which for the past few years has attracted so many of the higher class of visitors to Gainesville.

The Florida Winter Bible Conference will open on Sunday, March 22, continuing to March 30, and it is needless to add that, as in former years, it will be well attended from every section of the country.

A number of fine speakers have already been secured, all of whom are well known and successful in pulpit and platform work. Among these are Dr. Clarence B. Strouse, founder of the Conference, and largely to whose efforts the venture has proved so successful; Dr. Len G. Broughton, the eminent Baptist divine of Atlanta, Dr. Geo. L. Hanscom, Dr. George Stuart, Dr. W. A. Mason, Dr. Leasford, Dr. R. V. Miller, and a number of other prominent preachers.

The Circuit Court.

The entire day was spent in the circuit court yesterday in the hearing of the case of the Pepper Publishing & Printing Co. vs. the Gainesville and Gulf railway, assumpsit. The case was not concluded at the regular time for adjournment, and the same was carried over until 9 o'clock this morning.

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

Advertisements under this head, not exceeding nine lines, will be published one time a week in the daily, and one time a week in the semi-weekly, from now until the Democratic primary on May 19th for $10; after April 1st the rate will be $5. Cash must accompany the announcement in every instance.

FOR SHERIFF.

At the earnest solicitation of many friends throughout the county, I announce for the office of Sheriff of Alachua county, subject to the action of the primary election. If elected I assure the people that I will serve them faithfully and impartially.

P. G. RAMSEY.

FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER.

I respectfully announce myself a candidate for re-election as County Commissioner from District No. 5, promising the same faithful attention of the duties of the office in the future as in the past, and solicit the votes of my fellow-Democrats. Respectfully, J. F. TOWNSEND.

FOR MEMBER SCHOOL BOARD.

I respectfully announce myself a candidate for re-election as a member of the School Board from District No. 1, and if elected promise to serve my constituents with the same faithfulness as I have endeavored to serve them in the past. Vote for me, fellow-Democrats, and you will have no cause to regret it. Very truly,

R. B. WEEKS.

MUNICIPAL POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

FOR MARSHAL.

To the Voters of Gainesville—I take this method of announcing my candidacy for Marshal of the City of Gainesville. I have been on night work as an officer, protecting you and your interests while you were asleep, for about three years, and leave it to you as to whether I have performed my duty well, and with impartiality. I think I have been long enough at night work to be entitled to a day job, and if elected I promise you a faithful, impartial and efficient service. Yours for order, C. L. KITE.

I take this method of announcing my candidacy for re-election as City Marshal at the election, April 14th, 1908. I have endeavored to perform my duty without fear or favor, and would appreciate the support of my fellow-citizens, promising the same attention to the duties of the office in the future as in the past. Thanking you for past support, and soliciting your votes at the coming election, I am, Very truly,

BEN T. ARNOW.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for City Marshal in the election to be held on the 14th day of April, 1908. I promise if elected to endeavor to do the duties required by the ordinances as near as I possibly can, and I solicit the votes of all law-abiding citizens. Respectfully,

CHAS. FERGUSON.

FLORIDA BIRDS WORTH THEIR WEIGHT IN GOLD.

BY KIRK MUNROE.

Honorary Vice-President Florida Audubon Society.

Florida is pre-eminently an agricultural State, and fruit-raising is its chief industry. The hardest fight of the fruit-growers is against the hoards of insects, aphides, mats, bugs, beetles, caterpillars, grasshoppers, flies and grubs that devote their entire energies not only to the destruction of his crop, but of his trees, which they attack in leaf, bark and root. He fights them with sprays, washes and fumigations, and perhaps succeeds in destroying one beetle out of a thousand, one aphis in a million, and one ant out of each billion. His efforts are expensive, more or less injurious, and ridiculous in their inefficiency. In spite of them he would quickly be driven out of business were it not for an army of trained allies, alert, sharp-eyed, tireless, and eager to devote their time to his service without pay.

I mean, of course, the birds, without which our fair State would quickly become, not only non-productive, but absolutely uninhabitable. A noted French scientist has declared that without birds to check the ravages of insects human life would vanish from this planet within the short space of nine years; and I venture the prediction that in half that time no one of us could live in Florida were our birds suddenly to leave for places where their services are better appreciated.

In our inconceivable folly we of Florida never hesitate to kill a bird, if seized with an inclination to do so. A little gray-coated chap, flitting from tree to tree, in search of the insects that are sapping their life, offers a tempting mark, and we blaze away with a twenty-two rifle, just to see if we can hit him. To kill him is such an expensive form of amusement that it would be more economical to charge our rifle with a golden bullet and fire it into the sea. A fruit grower spies a red-bellied wood-pecker sampling his ripe peaches, and instantly declares a war of extermination against the whole family. He had better retire from business at once and save the further expense of caring for his orchard; for without the expert aid of the wood-pecker his efforts can only result in failure.

A boy is allowed to catch a young mocking-bird, or a red-bird, and sell it to a tourist for fifty cents. The State is made at least one hundred dollars poorer by the act. It would be cheaper in the end to give away golden birds of the same weight.

A meadow-lark, or each one of a covey of quail, in a ten-acre tomato field earns ten dollars in a single season as an insect-destroyer. Yet we not only shoot these birds ourselves, but we invite our friends from far and wide to come and help us destroy them as though they were a pest we are desirous to abate.

Besides the insectivorous birds upon whose efforts we are absolutely dependent for success in every branch of agriculture, there are those of inestimable value as tourist attractors—was there ever a Northerner in Florida who did not listen eagerly for his first mocking-bird song, or watch with delight the fishing of a pelican? Is he not willing to spend money for the sight of a flamingo, a roseate spoonbill, or a wood-ibis?—and does he not exclaim with pleasure at a flashing glimpse of a parrakeet or a nonpareil? He is willing to pay liberally for such sights as these, and we have given him just cause to complain of the absence of bird life along our coasts and inland waterways. A few years ago these swarmed with birds whose movements were of the greatest interest to our winter visitors. Now they are silent and deserted, despoiled of a chief attraction by plume and skin hunters who have robbed us without so much as saying "thank you."

We take every precaution to prevent a thief from stealing even the most trifling of our possessions, and at the same time make no effort to dissuade the gunner from shooting the birds upon whose existence depends our very livelihood. Queer, isn't it?

This May Interest You.

This woman says Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound saved her life. Read her letter.

Mrs. T. C. Willadsen, of Manning, Iowa, writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"I can truly say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound saved my life, and I cannot express my gratitude to you in words. For years I suffered with the worst forms of female complaints, continually doctoring and spending lots of money for medicine without help. I wrote you for advice, followed it as directed, and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it has restored me to perfect health. Had it not been for you I should have been in my grave to-day. I wish every suffering woman would try it."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

Promptness about health saves many sick spells. Mrs. Ida Gresham, Point, Tex., writes: "I used Herbine in my family for six years, and find it does all it claims to do." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

FLORIDA MID-WINTER EXPOSITION

Large Crowds Visit Jacksonville's Great Show.

Jacksonville, Feb. 17.—As the great Florida Mid-Winter Exposition at Jacksonville progresses new features are being added and new concessions granted daily.

From all parts of the State people are pouring in, and as one wanders through the big Palace of Industry, and along the Florida Trail, he is almost sure to meet someone from his home town. It is quite an education in itself to see these exhibits of our State's products and industries, to say nothing of the pleasure derived from visiting the shows along the Trail. The scene at night from the Jacksonville shore, when all the grounds and buildings are brilliant with myriad incandescent lights, is one of resplendent beauty, and the busy and brightly lighted ferries which ply the river make a picture that one does not soon forget.

Many free attractions are always going on, foremost of which is Beachey and his airship, which makes an ascension daily, and one at night with the aid of a powerful searchlight. This spectacle alone is worth coming many miles to witness.

Prof. Lewis and his troupe of wonderfully trained dogs will give free matinee and night performances.

La Carmontella, the beautiful physical culture artist, will give a free exhibition of her wonderful acts daily.

Beginning February 24th, and continuing for four days, will be the Jacksonville Society Horse Show, in which prominent men from all over the State have shown much interest, and which promises to be the greatest gathering of horseflesh ever before brought together in Florida. All are invited to enter their horses in competition for the valuable prizes which will be awarded. Rules and regulations governing same will be furnished on application to General Manager L. W. Buckley.

Capt. Henry, electrical engineer wizard of the wireless, will give demonstrations and lectures on electricity in the Palace of Industry. Captain Henry was formerly in the United States Government service and does more wonderful feats with electricity and the wireless telegraph than any man living.

Farmers, mechanics, railroaders, laborers rely on Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. Takes the sting out of cuts or burns or bruises at once. Pain cannot stay where it is used.

SHORT STATE ITEMS

Twenty cases of unlawful selling of liquor are on the docket in St. Lucie county.

Charles P. Munn, who for eight years had eluded the officers, has been captured. Munn is charged with the murder of the two Smith brothers in Columbia county, in 1900.

W. C. Deas of Tampa, who killed Charles Strong of Tampa also, was found not guilty. His attorneys plead self-defense as the cause of the killing and the jury agreed with their contention.

The Ponce deLeon celebration will be held in St. Augustine this year on April 1, 2 and 3. It is to be planned to give the reproduction of the landing of Ponce deLeon and other spectacular historical features on a more elaborate scale than last year.

The dead body of a negro by the name of Sam Preston was found near Mulberry three or four days after he had been murdered. The jury of inquest after an investigation brought in a charge of murder against two white men, who are now under arrest and will be held for the next grand jury.

John E. Hall, a young white man clerk in the Tampa postoffice for more than a year, was recently arrested on the charge of opening a letter directed to another. The letter was addressed to a woman of ill-fame. The young man plead guilty to the charge, stating that he was desirous of ascertaining the character of correspondence between the writer and the woman.

The failure of the Planters' Security Bank at Jensen has caused much hardship, so many had all their little savings there. The Ladies' Aid Society had over two hundred dollars. The colored people and the colored churches had their accounts there—even the children and young people who had saved their pennies and dimes deposited them there. Of course it will not all be a dead loss. The most optimistic hope to get 75 cents on the dollar, while others offer their accounts for ten cents on the dollar.

The city of Pensacola will receive the sum of $7,000 on account of the failure of the buyers of the Pensacola city improvement bonds to the amount of $350,000 to take up the issue when it was presented to them in New York. When the bids were offered it was one of the requirements that parties bidding on the issue should present a certified check of two per cent of the issue. The board of bond trustees will now proceed to collect this $7,000 as the company bidding highest on the bond issue has failed to live up to the argeement.

About eight o'clock yesterday morning, the launch "Pleasure," owned by Mr. and Mrs. Smith of Detroit, was seen to be on fire, and all the boat men around the Seminole dock and thereabouts hurried out to the craft to assist in quelling the flames. With quite some fighting, the fire was got ten under control, with but little damage done. There is nearly always something to laugh at during an episode of this nature, and this instance was no exception. It seems that the gasoline stove on board used by Mr. and Mrs. Smith had been leaking and when Mr. Smith lit it a great flash of fire went up, finally igniting a pail of gasoline near the stove. This added excitement to the scene. Later, one of the men who came to the assistance, grabbed a bucket of water (as he thought) and threw it on the flames. It wasn't water, though—it was gasoline. More excitement. After working for ten minutes, however, the flames were subdued, but while it lasted the fire was one Mr. and Mrs. Smith will put down in their diaries as a "Narrow Escape." —The Miami Metropolis, February 14.

Even from the Mountains

Ballard's Snow Liniment is praised for the good it does. A sure cure for rheumatism and all pains. Wright W. Loving, Grand Junction, Colo., writes: "I used Ballard's Snow Liniment last winter for rheumatism and can recommend it as the best Liniment on the market. I thought, at the time I was taken down with this trouble, that it would be a week before I could get about, but on applying your Liniment several times during the night I was about in 48 hours and well in three days." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

What Do They Cure?

The above question is often asked concerning Dr. Pierce's two leading medicines, "Golden Medical Discovery" and "Favorite Prescription."

The answer is that "Golden Medical Discovery" is a most potent alterative or blood-purifier, and tonic or invigorator and acts especially favorably in a curative way upon all the mucous lining surfaces, as of the nasal passages, throat, bronchial tubes, stomach, bowels and bladder, curing a large per cent. of catarrhal cases whether the disease affects the nasal passages, the throat, larynx, bronchia, stomach (as catarrhal dyspepsia), bowels (as mucous colitis), bladder, uterus or other pelvic organs. Even in the chronic or ulcerative stages of these affections, it is often successful in affecting cures.

The "Favorite Prescription" is advised for the cure of one class of diseases—those peculiar weaknesses, derangements and irregularities incident to women only. It is a powerful yet gently acting invigorating tonic and nervine. For weak worn-out, over-worked women—no matter what has caused the break-down, "Favorite Prescription" will be found most effective in building up the strength, regulating the womanly functions, subduing pain and bringing about a healthy, vigorous condition of the whole system.

A book of particulars wraps each bottle giving the formulæ of both medicines and quoting what scores of eminent medical authors, whose works are consulted by physicians of all the schools of practice as guides in prescribing, say of each ingredient entering into these medicines.

The words of praise bestowed on the several ingredients entering into Doctor Pierce's medicines by such writers should have more weight than any amount of non-professional testimonials, because such men are writing for the guidance of their medical brethren and know whereof they speak.

Both medicines are non-alcoholic, non-secret, and contain no harmful habit-forming drugs, being composed of glyceric extracts of the roots of native, American medicinal forest plants. They are both sold by dealers in medicine. You can't afford to accept as a substitute for one of these medicines of known composition, any secret nostrum.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets, small, sugar-coated, easy to take as candy, regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels.

HAD A BIG TIME.

Mount Vernon Lodge, K. of P., Commemorates Anniversary of Order.

The members of Mount Vernon Lodge No. 20, Knights of Pythias, with their lady friends, commemorated the forty-fourth anniversary of the founding of the order in the castle hall, over The Dutton Bank, Tuesday evening, which proved to be one of the most interesting as well as enjoyable occasions ever given by that order in Gainesville. It was largely attended by the Knights and their wives, mothers, sisters and lady friends, and the program was carried out in a most impressive manner. So well was every number, both musical and literary, rendered, that no attempt will be made at comment. Everyone participating were deserving of special praise and special mention, hence the events of the evening will only be summarized in the program as a whole, which was as follows:

Address of Welcome—J. W. Blanding.

Instrumental Music—Miss Fennell.

Anniversary Address—R. E. Davis.

Vocal Selection—Mrs. C. E. Dunham.

Address, "Advantages of Pythianism"—Capt. N. H. Cox.

Vocal Selection—Mrs. W. S. Prindle.

Address, "Friendship"—T. W. Fielding.

Instrumental Selection—Miss Burkhim.

Refreshments.

Toast Master—Robt. McClellan.

"Mount Vernon Lodge"—W. D. Dickinson.

Music, Instrumental—Miss Alice Thomas.

"Our Ladies"—Rev. S. B. Rogers.

"Insurance Branch"—Marcus Endel.

Music—Miss Burkhim.

Elegant refreshments were served, and it is needless to add were relished as they were prepared and served in a tempting manner by a committee who are thoroughly familiar with this department of any function where refreshments are required.

The following committees were in charge of the entertainment, and much credit is due them for their successful efforts.

Arrangements—R. McClellan, J. A. Phifer, J. H. Colson.

Reception—L. C. Lynch, W. R. McKinney, J. W. Blanding, Lee Graham, J. A. Roberts, W. O. Morris, W. D. Dickinson.

Refreshments—M. B. Saunders, R. T. Schafer, N. R. Carter.

Decorations—Evans Haile, L. J. Burkhim, J. D. Gardner.

Music—Miss Ida Burkhim, Miss Myrtle Fennell.

The editor of The Memphis (Tenn.) Times writes: "In my opinion Foley's Honey and Tar is the best remedy for coughs, colds and lung trouble, and to my own personal knowledge Foley's Honey and Tar has accomplished many permanent cures that have been little short of marvelous." LIFE IN GAY ROCHELLE.

Many Social Functions, All of Which Were Thoroughly Enjoyed.

Rochelle, Feb. 18.—Rochelle has been on the boom for a week. From one thing to another has been the go, and on Friday night, the 14th, there was a Valentine party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Jones, which was largely attended and enjoyed by all who were present. The crowd gathered at an early hour, and all seemed to enjoy themselves. There were various games played such as "Selling the Thimble," and "Unraveling the Mystery," until 11:30, when all marched to the dining-room where cake, ice cream and fruits of all kinds were waiting for them.

After they had eaten of all of the good things, they returned to the parlor, where the many pretty Valentines were displayed. There were probably one hundred Valentines to be distributed, with Miss Velma Jennings acting postmistress. There were some very handsome ones, and some very comical, which caused some very hearty laughs.

The ladies present were: Misses Lina Jones, Velma Jennings, Mattie Jennings, Eva Farmbach, Marcie Turner, Patsy Zetrouer, Annie Coulter, Sadie Coulter, Nellie Vause, Miss Wallace, Rosa Roberts, Alice Vause, Nannie Jones, Irene Jones; Messrs. Guy Waits, Mr. Smith, Scott Roberts, M. Roberts, Bert Zetrouer, John Thomas, J. A. Roberts, Will Beckham, Jim Zetrouer, Henry Jones, Marvin Farmbach, Willie Rilea, A. B. Stevens, Jno. Pitman, Erwin McClarly, Jake Zetrouer.

At a late hour the crowd departed for their respective homes, thanking Mr. and Mrs. Jones and assuring them that they had enjoyed themselves.

J. A. Roberts of Hawthorn attended the Valentine party at Mr. and Mrs. Jones'. Guy Waits and W. W. Smith of Grove Park, Miss Eva Farmbach and Erwin Farmbach of Boardman also attended.

J. A. Roberts made a flying trip to Gainesville Saturday.

Miss Nellie Vause and Miss Wallace of Johnson visited friends in Rochelle Friday, returning home Sunday evening.

J. A. Roberts went to Hawthorn Sunday evening, where he is at present employed with P. H. Baker.

On Saturday night there was an oyster supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Roberts, which was largely attended by both ladies and gentlemen. There were games of various kinds, and all seemed to enjoy themselves and have a good time, and at a late hour all returned to their respective homes.

Special Announcement Regarding the National Pure Food and Drug Law.

We are pleased to announce that Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs, colds and lung troubles is not affected by the National Pure Food and Drug law as it contains no opiates or other harmful drugs, and we recommend it as a safe remedy for children and adults.—J. W. McCollum & Co.

A New Setzer.

From Tuesday's Daily Sun.

C. P. Setzer, for a long time connected with The High Springs Hornet as the editor and proprietor, but who is now residing at Quitman, Ga., is now a full-fleged papa, as his good wife presented him on Sunday morning with a handsome, bouncing boy.

Mr. Setzer writes The Sun to the effect that his long desire is at last realized. In his own language we take the privilege of quoting:

"Mother is doing nicely, while father has an inglorious case of hysterics—but everything is all right."

Friends of Mr. Setzer in this section of the country will extend congratulations.

THE CIRCUIT COURT.

Three Civil Cases Tried and Others Disposed of Tuesday.

From Wednesday's Daily Sun:

The special term of the circuit court convened at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning, Judge J. T. Wills presiding.

The first case to come before the court was that of the Georgia Supply Co., a corporation, vs. J. P. Lynch, damages. A jury was called and sworn, testimony submitted, a verdict returned in favor of plaintiff in the sum of $373.52.

The case of the Cudahy Packing Co., a corporation, vs. S. F. Brooks, assumpsit, was tried by jury and a verdict of $122.63 was awarded the plaintiff.

The next case was that of The Maisby Company, a corporation, vs. H. M. Owens, replevin, when the jury brought in a verdict to the effect that plaintiff retain possession of property levied upon, and judgment for costs, $28.84.

Several cases were referred and continued, after which court adjourned until 9 o'clock Wednesday morning.

The jury for the week is as follows: Geo. R. Ellis, E. K. Fagan, P. Y. Smith, J. T. Shaw, H. D. Lewis, S. J. Hurflett, H. C. Roth, G. W. Hart, O. P. Cannon, H. P. Holstein, H. L. Owens. J. B. Dell was summoned, but was excused by the court.

SENATOR BEARD ENCOURAGED

Candidate for U. S. Senate Thinks His Chances Good in Alachua County.

From Wednesday's Daily Sun:

Senator John S. Beard, candidate for the United States Senate, who has been in this section since Friday in the interest of his campaign, returned Tuesday morning from High Springs, where, on Monday evening, he addressed a large and representative audience on the questions of the day.

Senator Beard also spoke at Alachua, and was greeted by a good crowd. He left Tuesday afternoon for Micanopy, where in the evening he was to address an audience.

This distinguished candidate states that he feels greatly encouraged over his reception in Alachua county, and believes he will poll a good vote at the coming primary.

MR. LYNCH TO TAMPA.

From Wednesday's Daily Sun:

Postmaster L. C. Lynch expects to leave today for Tampa, where he goes to attend the annual meeting of the Florida Association of Postmasters, which will convene in the South Florida metropolis Thursday morning. This association, embracing all the classes in postoffices in the State, has a large membership, and a large attendance is anticipated.

FIVE INJURED IN AUTO WRECK.

Probable One or More Hurt Will Die of Injuries Received.

Montgomery, Ala., Feb. 18.—Looking backward to ascertain if a woman driving a frightened horse was safe, George L. Harris, driving his automobile, allowed it to swerve from the Carter Hill road, six miles from Montgomery, into the ditch twelve feet below, and in the wreck which followed A. B. Raines was pinned under the machine, seriously injured and almost drowned in the water that filled the ditch; Mrs. Raines held temporarily by the car, was painfully cut on the face; Mr. Harris suffered sprains of his back and arms, and Mrs Harris, the least hurt of all, suffered a bad wrench of the back. Miss Julia Harris escaped with a slight cut on her lip.

Mr. Raines, the most seriously injured of the party, was hurt in the head and one of his ribs was broken, and he may die. He was under the machine for several minutes before Mr. Harris and the few men available for assistance could lift the car and take him to safety, and during part of that time his head was beneath the water. He was nearly drowned and was unconscious.

Immediately after the accident Mr. Raines and the others of the party were taken to a farm house a mile distant. Physicians, immediately summoned, rendered first aid. Later the injured were removed to the city and Mr. Raines was placed in a hospital.

Would Have No Sunday Saloons.

Chicago, Feb. 18—If Roosevelt was mayor of Chicago there would be no Sunday saloons declared Charles W. Trickett in St. James Methodist church at one of the scores of simultaneous meetings held in Chicago and throughout the state of Illinois to cause the enforcement of the state unday closing law. Mr. Trickett added: "If Roosevelt was governor of Illinois he would not tolerate treason and rebellion in Chicago if he had to post a soldier at the door of every saloon to keep it shut."

Dr. F. S. Reese, who was elected Bishop of the Episcopal Church of Georgia, a few days ago, mention of which was made in The Sun, is the father of Mrs. F. H. Craighill of this city. The honor was a high one, but justly deserved, as Dr. Reese is one of the most noted divines of his State.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Riles and Miss May Kirby have returned from Antioch, where they were summoned on account of the sad death of Mrs. Riles' father, Rev. C. F. Parker. The funeral was held Saturday, and was largely attended. The interment was in the family burying ground at Antioch.

J. E. Waugh, formerly of this city but now residing in Macon, Ga., where he has a lucrative position with the Georgia Southern & Florida railroad, has returned to his home, after a brief visit to his family and friends here. Mr. Waugh is well pleased with the Georgia city, which he declares is one of the finest cities of its size in the South. His friends here were glad to see him.

Prof. F. H. Ellis of Santa Fe was in the city yesterday. Prof. Ellis, who is an erstwhile school teacher in this county, who has made a fine record, has been recommended to the Governor for appointment as a member of the school board to succeed J. F. Futch, resigned. Prof. Ellis is thoroughly competent, and his appointment would meet the approval of the public generally.

Mrs. Guy W. Sackett of St. Petersburg, who arrived the latter part of the week with the intention of remaining here for several days as a guest of her uncle, S. H. Wienges, was called home suddenly on account of the arrival of her husband, who is a master of a vessel. It is to be regretted that she could not remain longer, but friends and relatives were glad to see her even for a brief period.

E. H. Sammis and daughter, Miss Florence, of New Canaan, Conn., are in the city, guests of the former's brother-in-law, M. B. Saunders. This is their first visit to Florida, and they are delighted with the climate and those whom they have met. Messrs. Sammis and Saunders enjoyed a drive yesterday to Kelley's big mill on Prairie Creek, where they were very deeply interested in the working of the veneering and other machinery.

HAD NARROW ESCAPE.

While Hunting Near High Springs With Friend Dr. Barrs Was Shot.

Dr. Barrs paid High Springs a visit last week, shaking hands with old friends. While here he went out in search of quail, accompanied by our efficient marshal, George Bryant. They were successful in finding the birds, but the Doctor happened to the misfortune of getting shot in the face and hands accidentally by Mr. Bryant. In hunting the birds they got separated, and the Doctor happened to get in range of Marshal Bryant's gun. Several shot lodged in Dr. Barrs' face and hands, but did not hurt him seriously, as they continued the hunt.—High Springs Messenger.

Lost His Bicycle.

Dr. Jas. M. Farr, vice-president of the University, had the misfortune to have his bicycle stolen on Monday night, the thief taking the wheel from the front piazza of his home some time during the night.

The matter has been reported to the officers, and the Doctor's friends trust that he will be fortunate enough to have the wheel restored.

Wednesday Night's Fire.

An alarm of fire was turned in from Box 64 at 7:45 Wednesday night, which summoned the department with its usual promptness to a house in the vicinity of the Tampa and Jacksonville depot.

There appeared to be more fright than fire, however, as the flames were extinguished with but little damage.

SAVED FROM BEING A CRIPPLE FOR LIFE.

"Almost six or seven weeks ago I became paralyzed at once with rheumatism," writes Mrs. Louis McKey, 913 Seventh street, Oakland, Cal. "It struck me in the back and extended from the hip of my right leg down to my foot. The attack was so severe that I could not move in bed and was afraid that I should be a cripple for life.

"About twelve years ago I received a sample bottle of your Liniment but never had occasion to use it, as I have always been well, but something told me that Sloan's Liniment would help me, so I tried it. After the second application I could get up out of bed, and in three days could walk, and now feel well and entirely free from pain.

"My friends were very much surprised at my rapid recovery and I was only too glad to tell them that Sloan's Liniment was the only medicine I used."

CAMP HAS BEEN BROKEN.

The Uniontown Crowd Will Soon Return to Their Northern Home.

The jolly Uniontown, Pa., hunting party, who have been accustomed for the past few years of spending a month or six weeks in camp near Palmer annually, have broken camp for this year, and, to use the expression, have "scattered to the winds." The outing this season proved thoroughly enjoyable, notwithstanding that game seemed scarce compared with other seasons.

There were several ladies from Uniontown with the party, but they remained in the city, with the exception of an occasional visit to the camp to spend the day.

Of the Uniontown crowd this season Mrs. Higginbotham, Mrs. S. Batton, Miss Katie Batton and Miss Annie Kennedy remained here at The White House, and, with O. W. Kennedy and I. O. Batton, members of the hunting party, are still here. Commodore R. W. Beall, Dr. John Batton and Morgan Higginbotham are spending a few days hunting in the West End, while the two remaining members of the party, Judge Reppert and George Bailey, are at Archer in an effort to bag additional game.

This is one of the jolliest parties as a whole who ever visited this section, and their numerous friends always receive them with the greatest pleasure.

PHOTOGRAPHY.

Photography today is an economic and social necessity in every community. It maintains the memory and affections of family life through the picture it makes, and which we could not now do without. How often is regret expressed that no picture exists of some friend or relative who is no longer with us! Sometimes, indeed, the camera has to intrude upon the sacredness of the death chamber itself when relatives feel that a photograph in such circumstances is better than none at all. Do not procrastinate. Be wise and "secure the shadow ere the substance fades."

You can get a picture from locket to life-size at Smith's Studio.
